F.F.A. CHAPTER - 1928 - 1953

Meeting Combines Election, Eats

Feasting and business proved a "happy combination" declares Marshall High, who gave a report on the first meeting of the Bailey Chapter of the FFA. New officers were elected at this meeting.

These officers are Wayne B. Finch, president; Dwight Glover, vice-president; Cornelius Boykin, secretary; Danny Glover, treasurer; Marshall High, reporter; and Newton Glover, watch dog.

Parker's in Wilson was the scene of this first meeting of the chapter.

There was a total of 42 new and old members present. Ronald Bissette, the past president, presided.

Federation Conducts First Meeting

Meeting to set important dates for the school term, the Nash-Edgecombe Federation met in the Coopers Agriculture building on September 23.

Those representing the Bailey Chapter were Cornelius Boykin, Dwight Glover, Danny Glover, and adviser John Wells.

Dates for the banquets and all contests were set at this meeting.

Boys Go Picnicking

Ed Williams' Pond was the scene of a barbecue supper last Wednesday night for the tenth grade members of the FFA Chapter and adviser John Wells.

Each boy brought a chicken and gave Charles Vick, treasurer, enough money to buy the bread and drinks.

Billy Liles, L. B. Adams, and Charles Rhodes served as cooks for the group.

Following the supper, the boys scattered in all directions with most of them going to the fair in Spring Hope, says "Boss".

BOYS ENTER SHOW

Dwight Glover, Danny Glover, and Bobby Dew are entering their acre of tobacco in the Junior Tobacco Show and Sale, October 6 and 7, in Rocky Mount.

Men Arrive For Practice Teaching

Two practice teachers are again this year assigned to the Bailey Chapter to teach the first school semester, ending December 10, declares adviser Wells.

Coming from State College in Raleigh, the new teachers are Glenn Elton Byrd of Burlington and Baxter Guy Dean of Louisburg.

Their practice teaching will include the freshman and part of the sophomore boys, adds "Boss".
