

Students Share School Activities

Found daily serving in some capacity necessary "to keep the wheels of the school" turning are many students. Some of the tasks offer a small remunerative fee; others are performed on a voluntary basis, say the teachers.

Helping M. W. Weaver in the office during their study halls are Ann Earp, first period; Jean Wells, second period; Amy Lou Horton or Louise Howell, fourth period; Jo Ellen Finch, fifth period; and Patricia Dew or Louise Howell, sixth period.

LIBRARIANS

Five girls assisting Miss Idalia Oglesby with the library are Sonja Lamm, Jane Burgess, Jo Ann Bunn, Clara Dell Morgan, and Phyllis Jean Bissette. Their duties are to keep the library books in order and the floor clean, aid students in finding books, and stamp the books that go out.

Sonja Manning operates the supply room. She opens it before school and keeps it open until the last bell rings.

POPCORN STAND

Those working at the popcorn stand this year are J. W. Carroll, Frank Denton, and David Burnette. They pop the corn and sell it to the high school and grammar grades during the lunch period. These boys are from Mrs. R. G. L. Edwards' eighth grade room.

Serving in the lunchroom are Stella Jones, Vivian Glover, Elsie Rae Eatman,

Classes Pick Leaders For The Year

Guiding their classes for this year will be presidents Jerry Perry, senior; Marshall High, junior; Lucille McKeel, sophomore (A); Joan Brannon, sophomore (B); Faye McKeel, freshman (A); and James Wells, freshman (B).

Other senior officers are Wayne B. Finch, vice-president; Tanya Glover, secretary; and Jimmy Harris treasurer.

Louise Howell, Ann Earp, Annie R. Brown, and Marlene Perry from the high school.

Shirley Williams, Rudolph Jones, Craven Gay, Roselyn Turnage, Carol Johnson, Melba Eatman, Sue Weaver, Katy Horton, Jeannette Eatman, Carolyn Glover, Brenda Flughum, Nancy McKeel, and Nora J. Lamm come from the grammar grades. For working, each student gets his dinner free.

Janice Edwards, vice-president; Edwin Finch, secretary; Douglas Brown, treasurer; and Marlene Eatman, reporter, are Marshall High's helpers.

Homeroom B of the Sophomores have Gloria Dew, vice-president; Catherine McKeel, secretary; and Nancy Medlin, treasurer.

Officers for homeroom A of the sophomores are Billy Ray Liles, vice-president; Ray Fulghum, secretary; and Billy Ruffin, treasurer.

FRESHMEN

Freshman assisting officers of section B are Tommy Gay, vice-president, Betty Lou Goff, secretary, and Nancy Dew, treasurer.

Supporting their president in section A of the freshman class are Lane Farmer, vice-president; Jo Ellen Finch and Sonja Manning, treasurers; and Carolyn Adams, historian.

For Top quality results bring your cotton to our modernized gin plant. We assure you highest market price for cotton and seed.

W. H. FARMER & BRO, Inc.

BAILEY

NORTH CAROLINA