Ag. Boys Present T.V. Program

Local F.F.A. members presented a T.V. program this month on the subject of nematodes at W.N.C.T. in Greenville on the "Farming for Tomorrow" program.

Pictures that were taken locally were used to illustrate the damage done by nematodes while the boys emphasized the importance of controlling them.

Planning for the program was done by JAMES WELLS, president; CHARLES WILLIAMS, vice president; DALE WELLS, secretary; CARROL BOTTOMS, reporter; and adviser Wells.

Highlighting safety in shop work will be featured on another T.V. program to be presented by the chapter in March.

Wells, Federation Veep

Other items of business brought before the meeting were the planning of the federation contest and the annual federation banquet.

CALENDAR ADS PROVE INTEREST TO CHAPT.

Promotion of calendar sales created the most interest at the first business session of the chapter at Parkers', according to vice president CHARLES WILLIAMS.

Items of business discussed and passed were attendance at the State Fair, October 19, initiation for Green Hands, Calendar advertisements as a fund raising campaign, the Chapter's paying half the cost of official FFA jackets for officers, and the purchasing of new volley ball equipment for the chapter.

Srs. Lead As Officers

Officers for the school year, '56-'57, were elected last spring by all the members of the FFA Chapter

Four officers were seniors-JAMES WELLS, president; CHARLES WILLIAMS, vice president; DALE WELLS secretary; and CARROL BOTTOMS, reporter. The other two were juniors-JEFF DENTON, treasurer; and LEWIS WILLIAMS, sentinel.

BOYS TO ENTER CONTEST

Seven FFA boys plan to participate in the Junior Tobacco Show and Sale at Rocky Mount, October 5-6.

Members that will display their one acre of tobacco are JIMMY DEW, DALE WELLS, RANDAL HINTON, A.W. PITTS, RAY PEELE, J.W. BISSETTE, and CHARLES WILLIAMS.

It is hoped the sale will increase interest in farming.
