ker's room also placed second in the P.T.A. Membership Drive.

Sponsoring the third and fourth grade combination is Mrs. Olivia P. Barnes. Enrolled are 33 students, 18 boys and 15 girls. Safety is the main subject Mrs. Barnes has been teaching the first month of school.

Thirty-seven students comprise Miss Clee Eatmon's third grade, 22 boys and 15 girls. Miss Eatmon is taking up reading, traveling, birds, animals, and people.

READING TEST

Mrs. Altermise Glover's second grade has enrolled 35 students. A readiness test has been taken to help divide the class into different groups to improve their reading.

Thirty-two students make up the first and second grade combination, sponsored by Mrs. Horace Meacomes. There are 13 students in the first grade and 19 in the second. Mrs. Jerome Vick, Mrs. Ed. Cozart, and Mrs. Elmer Deans are serving as grademothers.

Mrs. Effie Mae Hagwood's

first grade has 36 students. The students are proud of having learned to write their names.
