

Have You?

Keith Glover

WELCOMED: The new students in school? They are EDGAR and VERLIE MONEYHAN from Fayetteville. MAC POWEN is back with us from Wilson. We surely are glad to have you.

NOTICED: Accidents are already taking their toll of the students in Bailey? Please, BE CAREFUL!

NANCY DEW'S dimples when she smiles? Smile more often, Nancy; they are real cute.

The improvement made on the gym floor. It really is attractive.

How skilled some of the freshmen boys and girls are with shoe shine kits?

How noisy the halls are? Let's all do our part in being quieter.

How well pleased everyone is with their pictures and memory books this year.

THOUGHT: Of a way to attend all school activities and still have time for study? Please, tell us your solution.

About your manners? If not, you should; you know, they can be improved.

PLANNED: To attend the Halloween Carnival tonight:

To cooperate with your teachers and classmates to bring those conduct grades up?

To buckle down, study, and be a better student during this grading period?

TRIED: To be friendly to everyone and not just a chosen few?

To take Mr. Weaver's advice on courtesy and politeness?

DONE: At least one act of courtesy a day? If you do, you'll find it easier to be courteous all the time. Besides, you make others happier and you are more pleasant to be with. Try it, won't you?

ENDEAVORED: To set good examples for others to follow. Help your classmates to be better students and citizens.

CONSIDERED: Buying a BUGLE; if not, please do. Help the journalism students keep parents in contact with the school.

OFFERED: Your assistance to the teachers in any extra work needed to carry on an interesting class.

ASKED: Peggy Braswell why buses stop at railroad crossings? It's not always to let the train pass, Peggy.

READ: The teenage column in this issue of the BUGLE

It's a new attraction. Please give us your opinions of it.

SHOWN: Appreciation to everyone who has favored you?

THANKED: The students and teachers for the enjoyable assembly programs that they have presented?

SEEN: The Elvis Presley Bracelets many of the girls (especially sophomores) are wearing?

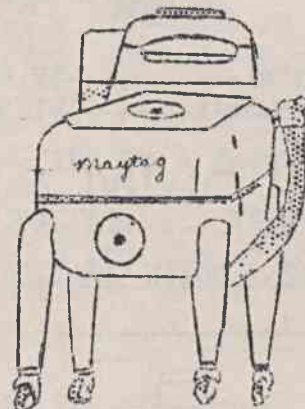

Our prospective basketball stars in action? (If you haven't, you didn't attend the class tournaments; See the Sports page for the winners.
