

Failing Grades, Conduct Points Jolt Team

Failure of two or more subjects and the receiving of more than 35 conduct points during the first six weeks grading period will keep some of Bailey's sports' figures from playing basketball until after the second report period.

Among those failing to meet the standards are JAMES RAY LAMM, J. W. BISSETTE, WILLIAM STOTT, and ANNETTE DAVIS.

"These students may continue to attend practice sessions, but it has not been decided whether they will get a suit," declared Coach W. H. Westall.

Sophs., Jrs., Capture Tournament Victories

Tops in basketball here at BHS is the sophomore girls' team and the junior boys' team. This was proved at the class tournaments played the earlier part of October.

Senior girls swept a victory over the freshmen girls with a score of 32-26.

Sophomore girls stopped the juniors with a 39-23 win.

In the boys' games, the juniors spanked the freshmen by a 42-point margin.

With a 10-point lead, the sophomores won over the seniors, 45-35.

Play-offs were won by the sophomore girls with a 32-31 victory and by the junior boys scoring 61 points to the sophomores 51.

COACH REVIEWS TOURNAMENTS

"All tournament games were a success and almost all games were close," states Coach W. H. Westall.

Here is a brief run-down on some of the players as given by the coach.

"Freshmen, SANDRA STOTT, playing guard and MARJORIE HINTON, forward, have some skill to be developed. FRED LAMM and DONNIE HARRIS have natural ability and are potential ball-players.

"J. W. BISSETTE has improved and he's beginning to gain control of the set shot. WILLIAM STOTT jumps well and has a smooth jump shot.

"I'm depending on KATY HORTON for scoring points. She works the ball well, but will not shoot when

The Benchwarmer

Twenty-four hopefuls went out for the girls' basketball team. Of these, 18 will receive suits.

Trying to earn a place on this year's squad are approximately 30 boys. There are suits for only 15.

Posters containing the 1956-'57 schedule, tentative tournament dates, and school nickname will be given to the school in early December by the Pepsi-Cola Company.

she gets a good shot.

"SONJA MANNING played good ball. I wish she had gone out for the team."

"I am very pleased with the improvements made by BETH HARRIS and ALICE RUTH ISSETTE. They handle the ball better, shoot more accurately and move faster.

"I am expecting great things from JIMMY DEW, and I hope that FAYE LAMM will continue playing a good game."
