

Snippy, the Snooper

Look out for that scandalous "Snippy."
We think he's a little bit dippy;
We don't know who he is;
But he's sure got the biz,
And he can smell a love in Mississippi!

F. Yelverton liked baseball!
Baseball or Captain, eh Frances?

Mary Best was overheard to say that she had been in "love" with the same guy for two years. Funny, though, we haven't seem them much together lately. What's the matter, Addison?

We heard that Randolph M.'s motto was "Keep Fighting," but since the trip to Durham he has withdrawn from the battle. Could it be the little brunette in Durham? We saw him mailing a picture about a week ago, and receive one of her today.

Frances isn't the only one who misses baseball. What about Virginia?

Now we know why Olivia likes Sea Scouts. Does Bill Grady have anything to do with this?

Germany certainly does appeal to Tommy Daniels lately. Need I say more? In case you don't catch on, it's Emmy.

Louis H. and Doris W. make a swell couple, don't they? Look for them sometime.

Helena J. seems to have a good time every day between classes. John T. is with her, so why shouldn't she have a good time?

ing torch.
Mrs. Middleton, advisor then taking charge, gave instructions as to the tappings of the new members which was done by the seven old members who were taken in two months ago. One by one the old members of the society went into the audience to get the candidate whose name he was given.

When all the new members were seated on the platform, Mr. Burt P. Johnson administered the pledge to all the new members, after which all new pledges signed the formal registration sheet which is filed with the society's records.

Everette Proud read the constitution.

At a meeting of the Honor Society on May 19, Jane Smith was elected president of the council. The other officers were: James Heyward, vice-president; Helen Moye, secretary. The advisor, Mrs. Middleton will act as treasurer. Other business was the decision to order the emblem pins for the members at the earliest possible date.

The society did not function last year because the school was dropped from the accredited list. The first Honor Society of GHS was chartered in 1932, and since that time has inducted 52 students into the society. Seven seniors—Everette Proud, Marshall McDowell, William Dees, Ozello Woodward, Mary Baddour, Resanna Barnes, Jane Smith were taken in two months ago.

Hollingsworth, treasurer.
The board of elections which is made up of Billy Spicer, chairman, Earl Montague, Dorothy Creech, Horace Potter, and Jean Edgerton has been making plans for the election to be held Friday, May 28. Miss Downing is faculty advisor.

The polls will be open from 8:30 to 4:00 and will be held by students chosen by the board of elections. One member of the board will be on duty during the entire election.

All petitions must be in by Thursday morning, May 27, as campaign speeches will be is assembly Thursday.

A list of all candidates will be kept posted daily on each room bulletin board.

Who is "Snippy The Snooper"?—Nobody knows but the old boy himself. The feature editor has received several scandalous letters from him. Most of the staff members have been accused of being "Snippy" but nothing has been proved—yet. Who do you think it is?
