

Student Association Completes Activities

The Student Association has completed another year of promoting student participation in the activities of the school and the general welfare of the school.

In January the SA sponsored a scrap paper drive throughout the city from which the profit was $85.13. The students from the high school helped plan the drive and they collected the paper.

The SA presented the Goldmasquers in 3 one-act plays in February. The profit of $77.80 was equally divided among the two groups. Each SA council homeroom representative was in charge of the sale of tickets in his homeroom.

In February a letter of apology from the Student Association was sent to the Fayetteville High School for the poor conduct shown by GHS at a Fayetteville-Goldsboro basketball game.

At the beginning of the year the Student Body voted in favor of an activity ticket priced at $2.00 for the year 1944-45.

During the year the SA sent 5 delegates to North Carolina State Student Council Congress in High Point and 6 delegates to the Eastern district meeting of the NCSSCC in Greenville.

Proposed Amendment Accepted By Students

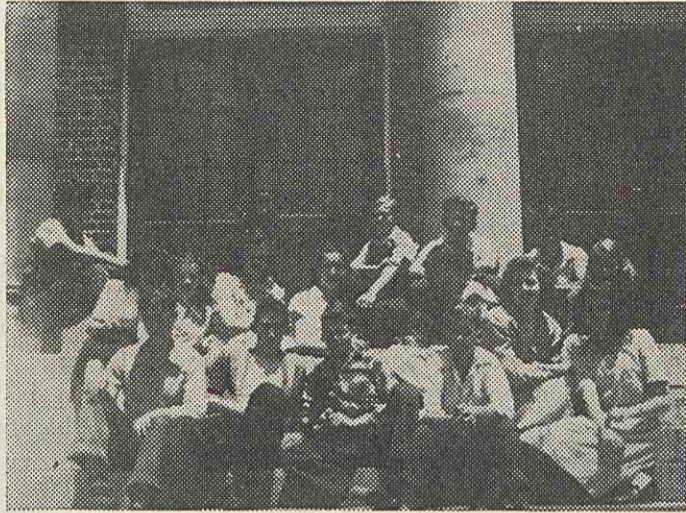

A proposed amendment to by-law No. 8 reading: "Any committee member who neglects his duties, or performs them in an incompetent manner, may be removed by a two-thirds majority vote of that committee sitting with both the adviser and accused member present," was passed almost unanimously in an SA meeting May 21.

With the backing of at least two-thirds of a homeroom and after two successive discussions on the proposed amendment in SA Council, the Student Body may pass an amendment.

The amendment referred to above was backed by Room 17 and was written by Charles Britt, Parliamentarian.

It will be added to the Constitution in the fall when the present handbooks will be revised and reprinted.

Two Seniors Visit USO Club

By Gatsy Butler and Jean Powell

As Saturday night is reputedly the loneliest night in the week we strolled up to the USO to create some excitement (and it was excitement). An uncertain look was cast upon us at the entrance desk by the Senior Hostess as we glibly said we were Hi News reporters. We did want a story on the May Queen. Former graduates and present High School teacher(s) were floating around the dance floor as we climbed the stairs. Immediately upon our getting settled in the "posy pots," to our chagrin a Marine, who made himself our guardian for the night, approached us and asked both of us to dance. We had been warned by the Senior Hostess not to dance, so we turned him down.

Such temptation, to have all those handsomeromeos and ethereal music available, (!?) Of course, we had to spot two boys that were positively adorable and what did they do? They stayed away from us as if we had German measles. While we were gazing with eyes, ears, and mouth open, chance sent a Marine (M-M) and what do you think he wanted? Here's his question: "If you had a convertible, what color would you paint it—yellow, robin's egg blue, or black with a red stripe?" said yellow, because her cousin had a yellow one. We overheard his same conversation with others all around.

And who else do you think was there?—Donald M.'s brother, He was a lot of help when a crowd of sailors came up to get us to be in the May Queen contest. We could not convince them that we weren't eligible (in status or looks!)

The time came for judging the beauty gals so they were herded downstairs and were given cardboards with numbers on them. Each girl was escorted across the stage by a soldier and then the service men voted. We found a number of GHS alumni among the May Court. They were Juliet Farfour, May Queen; Mildred McCormick, "Snag" Hallow, Mary Lib Hart, and Claire Long were in the May Court. The Queen led the May Court dance with one of the Marines that we thought was so cute.

We left the chattering, noisy, fun-making crowd and the last thing we saw was Miss Williams whirling around the dance floor with a particularly attractive partner!

Goldsboro High School Song

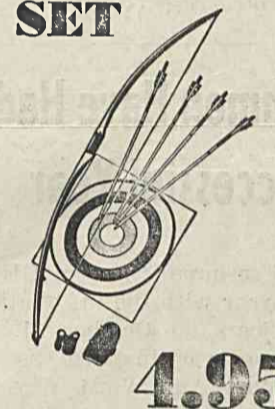

I
There's a song in the air,
Goldsboro High School;
We can hear it everywhere,
Goldsboro High School.
In your school or at home
Any place you chance to roam,
Goldsboro, Goldsboro High School!

Chorus
Then hurrah for our school
Let us sing; let us sing;
And we'll up with a cheer
Let it ring; let it ring;
For we're faithful and true
To our colors white and blue,
Goldsboro, Goldsboro High School!

II
Though we're mighty hard to beat,
Goldsboro High School;
Yet we bravely bare defeat,
Goldsboro High School.
We go forward, yes, we do,
And the cause is due to you,
Goldsboro, Goldsboro High School!
