Peggy Ann Britt Is Elected President of Freshman Class

Peggy Ann Britt heads up the freshman class for this year.

Those serving with her are: Paul Pittman, vice-president; Barbara Russell, secretary; Jack Borden, treasurer; and Jimmy Shumate and Peggy Malpass, cheerleaders.

The incoming president, Peggy Ann Britt, had no opposition, thus she was automatically elected, as was Jack Borden, the freshman treasurer.

The only re-vote needed in the elections was between Peggy Malpass and Julia Manly, who were running for cheerleader.

As is the custom, these elections were held during Freshman Week. Campaign speeches were held on Thursday, October 3, after which the freshmen made their first visit to the polls in Goldsboro High School. The results of the election were announced at the traditional freshman tea on the following Friday afternoon. In the re-vote, campaign speeches were held Monday, October 7. The re-vote was taken the following Tuesday.

Others in the race were Libby Lou Stuart, running for vice-president; Minnie Ruth Forehand, campaigning for secretary; and Jimmy Thomas, Jane Bostic, Sara Dewey Hunt, and Julia Manly, running for cheerleader.

All details of the election were handled by the SA Board of Elections, of which Leah Lloyd Riggsbee is chairman.

FRESHMAN OFFICERS—Paul Pittman, Jimmy Shumate, Barbara Russell, Peggy Ann Britt, and Peggy Malpass.

Juniors Have Charge Of Magazine Drive

September 27-October 14 mark the dates of the magazine drive sponsored by the junior class of Goldsboro High School.

The drive is put on by Curtis Publishing Company, and for every Curtis magazine sold the junior class gets 50 per cent of the money taken in. From other magazines sold, the class gets 30 per cent.

If the entire class sells $500 worth of magazines, the one selling the most gets his choice of a Philco radio or Bulova wrist-watch. If $1,000 is taken in, the two selling the most magazines get their choice. The junior homeroom selling the most on a percentage basis of the number of students in the room, gets taken to the movies. Thus far the rooms have taken in the following amounts: Mr. Clifton Britton's homeroom, $321.00; Miss Janie Ipeck's homeroom, $555.50; Miss Carolyn Langston's homeroom, $84.00; Miss Dorothy Reade's homeroom, $81.50; and Mrs. Ruth Shine's homeroom, $29.50. The total is $1081.50.

Those with the highest number of sales to their credit thus far are: Janie Bartlett, leading with $137.50; Polly Edgerton, $127.50; Marilyn Tolochko, $97.50; and Dorothy Lahr, $87.50.

The class has not definitely decided what to do with the money they will receive, but it will go for some worthy school project.

Hi News Stages Sub Campaign

The subscription drive for the Hi News is now well under way.

Subscriptions cost fifty cents a year, and for this fifty cents, the subscriber receives eight copies of the paper, including not only news and happenings in GHS, but features and other interesting items as well.

Last year there was practically 100 per cent participation in the drive. This year all students are urged to take an interest in their school events by subscribing 100 per cent to the Hi News.

Wilmington Students Here

Friday, October 4, the Goldsmasquers were hosts to a group of students from New Hanover High School in Wilmington.

These visitors arrived at GHS at 10:30 A.M., and were greeted by Mr. Clifton Britton, the dramatic art teacher. The students and their teachers, Misses Johnson and Ward, first observed dramatic art classes in room 16. After a visit to the radio broadcasting studios and production room, the Wilmington students had lunch in the cafeteria and then returned home.

Herbert Howell Outlines Aims

Herbert Howell, SA president, has announced the objectives for the coming year will be as follows:

- (1) To print a student directory with each student's name, address, and phone number in it.
- (2) To have better conduct in council.
- (3) To have a guest teacher at every council meeting.
- (4) To have an executive board meeting before each council meeting with the committee chairmen who have business attending.

Student Congress Delegates Chosen

Leonard Fulghum, Erline Griffin, and Herbert Howell have been elected to go to the twentieth State Student Congress at Asheville from October 21 through October 23.

Delegates will be entertained two evenings by an outdoor picnic and a semi-formal dance. Also the Art Committee will conduct a display of publications from different schools.

SA President Greets Frosh

Welcome to freshmen of the high school was given September 9, 1946, at 9:00, in the auditorium, by Herbert Howell, SA president, on behalf of the Student Council, and by Mr. C. W. Twiford, principal, on behalf of the faculty.

The students sang the high school song, led by Roy Malpass, head cheerleader. Afterwards Rev. Leroy Trexler gave the invocation. Students were then assigned homerooms and the first day of school began.

Freshmen Initiated Into School Customs

Freshman Week was observed in GHS during the week of September 30.

An assembly was held Monday with Miss Sarah Alexander's fourth period dramatics class in charge. The scene presented on the stage was one of an old cemetery in which were the graves of last year's freshman class. The spirits of the sophomore class went out to get revenge for last year's happenings, and brought freshmen onto the stage. Jerry Sanford, who played the part of a hermit, then sentenced the freshmen to do different duties.

On Tuesday the heads of the student organizations and clubs gave talks. Miss Janie Ipeck talked on the grading system. Leah Fifteen seniors, two juniors, and one sophomore compose the Hi News staff for the year 1946-47.

Leah Lloyd Riggsbee, class of '47, heads the staff as editor this year.

Those serving with her are: Marilyn Tolochko, '48, managing editor; F. W. Stanley, '47, feature editor; Susan Smith, '47, assistant feature editor; Oscar Bagley and Pinky Gainey, both of '47, sports editors; Charles Ellis, '47, photographer; Connie Johnson, '47, business manager; Lois Pearce, '47, advertising manager; Margie Perry, '47, exchange editor; Edna Davis, '47, alumni editor; Nance Potts, '47, circulation manager; Martha Winslow, '47, Highlights editor; Herbert Howell, '47, Gerald Massengill, '48, Jane Shaver, '47, William Smith, '47, and Billy Winslow, '49, reporters.

Last year the Goldsboro Hi News achieved the rating of first-class-excellent. This year the staff hopes to attain for the paper the highest rating possible — All-American.

Mr. Eugene L. Roberts is teacher of journalism and advisor to the staff.

GHS Has Band Again

For the first time since 1943 G.H.S. has a band.

Mr. Roy Russell, the band instructor, has stated that he hopes the band will be prepared to play for our last three home football games.

The band is divided into two sections for a total of 52 members. Band practice is every Tuesday and Thursday afternoons.

The Glee Club, which Mr. Russell also directs, consists of ninety members; made up mostly of girls. There is a real need for more male voices in the choir, Mr. Russell says. Some music is taught to the Glee Club students. During the year the music department plans to give a number of musical programs.

NCEA Will Meet Here November 1

November 1 will mark the meeting of the North Central District of the North Carolina Educational Association.

Invitations sent out by the Goldsboro High School, where the meeting is to take place, have been accepted.

During the day, lunch and dinner will be served in the cafeteria to about 300 or 400 teachers.

A general assembly will be held in the morning and afternoon, and there will also be meetings in various classrooms of the different departments.

A president's dinner will be given in honor of Mr. W. M. Jenkins, president of the district, and superintendent of Durham County Schools.

The home economics class will serve for the dinner, and the marshals will be in attendance.

New Handbook Given Students

A revised edition of the 1940 Handbook of the Student Association, published by last year's SA, was issued to all students September 9, 1946.

The revised edition contains additional writeups on new organizations, while several honors and awards were discontinued. The constitution that is now existing was ratified in the spring of 1946.

The handbook committee was composed of Eunice Bizzell, chairman, Ray Bryan, Jewel Overton, John Thompson, and Mr. Eugene L. Roberts, advisor.

Senior Class Rings Arrive

Senior class rings came and were distributed on September 26. The rings were ordered the latter part of last year. They are standard rings with a blue spinel stone which has not been obtainable since 1941. The rings are yellow gold, carrying the state seal and a small engraving of the High School. The year of the class graduation is also on the rings.

The ring committee was composed of: Ruth Caudill, chairman; Oscar Bagley, Charles Ellis, Barbara Gainey, and Susan Smith.

Andrews Serves As Drama President

Goldmasquer officers for the year 1946-47 have been elected.

They are: president, Robert Andrews; vice president, Donald Pike; secretary, Lillian Overman; business manager, Herbert Howell; and advertising manager, Curtis Lancaster.

Attendance Up Says Principal

"Percentage of attendance is the best since I've been in GHS," announced Mr. C. W. Twiford, principal of the high school.

Mr. Twiford said that the per cent of promotions last year by the days attended were as follows: the students attending from 180 days up had 100 per cent promotions; those attending from 160-179 days had 98 per cent promotions; those attending from 140-159 days had 90 per cent promotions; and those attending from 120-139 days had 75 per cent promotions.

He also said that the 492 students attending high school the first month last year had 96 per cent attendance, while this year the 600 students attending have 98 per cent attendance.

Mr. Twiford stressed the fact that it is important to be on time. Tardiness goes down on the student's permanent record, and counts against him when he seeks employment in later years.

Homemakers Plan for Year

Plans for the opening of work of Future Homemakers of America for the year 1946-47 were drawn up at a meeting of the executive board of the FHA held Friday, October 11.

The plans made by the executive board included: programs to be given each second and fourth Friday morning during home room period; the sending of a representative to a County Executive Board meeting in Mt. Olive, to be held October 22, when County FHA officers will be nominated; and the carrying of information about the club by the Bulletin Board and Trophy Cabinet.

Membership in the club will be open the week of October 14-18. All girls who have taken home economics or are now taking it are eligible for membership.

A district meeting of the club will be held November 16. Although the meeting place has not yet been announced, the Goldsboro girls are planning to attend.
