Seniors Plan Supplement To Hi News

The Senior class of GHS recently voted to have a supplement since an annual was impossible. The paper will be a supplement to the Hi News.

No other definite plans have been made to date.

Instead of just extra pages in the Hi News, plans call for a magazine type booklet to be included as an insert in the regular seven-column school paper.

Senior Play Plans Are In Making

"Seventh Heaven," by Austin Strong was chosen by the seniors to be their senior play.

The cast has not been chosen yet but plans are being made.

The story centers around Diane, a convert of stolen goods. Chico is a sewer cleaner. He calls himself a free-thinker and he has grown so accustomed to believing himself a remarkable man that he becomes one. He rescues Diane from the clutches of an evil sister. He takes pity upon the girl and proclaims her his wife to save her from arrest. Thus is set in train of series of events which elevate Chico, Diane, Boul, a rascally taxi driver, Arlette, a barmaid, everyone with whom Chico comes in contact. Torn from Diane on what was to have been their wedding day by the call to arms at the outbreak of the war, he imparts to her the secret of his own courage, which is his faith in one's self. The third act shows Diane faithfully and confidently awaiting Chico's return. At the moment the armistice is signed she gets what seems sure proof that he is dead. But Chico comes back and everything ends happily.

Juniors Consider Spending Money

At a Junior class meeting held January 16, in the GH auditorium, the students voted on what to do with the money earned in the magazine drive. The things voted on were: Camera for the Hi News, furniture for the library, School speaker system, Mimeograph machine, Record player for socials, Auditorium window curtains, Save money for each homeroom, Radio for each junior homeroom, replant shrubs and grass, give part to GHS Recreational Fund, Showers for gym, Save half of the money, Save all of the money.

Junior Week was also discussed at the meeting. Eunice Bizzell was appointed head of a committee in charge of Junior Week. Davis Byrd was appointed head of a committee to see about the junior issue of the Hi News. Another committee was appointed to be in charge of the Junior-Senior. Jane Parker was named chairman, with the rest of the committee composed of Evelyn Barbee, Faye Branch, Lillian Overman, Fred Tyndall, Kenneth Waters, and Louise York.

Study Is Made Of Veterans In School

Veterans in school last spring under the G. I. Bill and the Vocational Rehabilitation Act were enrolled in courses averaging 27 months in length, according to a study made by the Veterans Administration.

The study was made of veterans enrolled in schools under both laws last spring. Figures given include only those in school, not in on-the-job training.

The survey shows a wide range in different courses. Average length of course for disabled veterans enrolled under the Vocational Rehabilitation Act ranged from 7 months for those in service training to 38 months for those studying dentistry and medicine. G. I. Bill trainees varied from 9 months for service training to 38 months for communications and utilities and 34 months in optometry and architecture.

Average lengths of other long courses undertaken by veterans under the G. I. Bill were: pharmacy 33 months, agriculture and related courses 33, engineering 32, physical education 32, liberal arts 32, industrial arts 31, theology 31, education 31, business administration 31, dentistry 31, chemistry 30, and science 30.

Average lengths of shortest courses for this group, besides ser-

March of Dimes Campaign Is Waged in GHS

The annual "March of Dimes" drive was conducted in Goldsboro High School starting January 22, and continued through the morning of January 30.

Most rooms were given two cards to fill with dimes and several asked for additional ones.

This drive was conducted by the Community Service Board, composed of Charles Ellis, chairman; Carolyn Loftin, Francis Meyers, Betsy Peele, with Miss Dorothy Reade as faculty adviser.

There was also a short discussion on ordering senior class rings. Miller Eason, president of the Junior class, presided over the meeting.

Orchestra Is Heard At School

The Busch Symphony Orchestra presented the second in a series of four programs planned this year by the Goldsboro Community Concert Association, January 24, at eight-thirty o'clock.

The program included the Overture to "The Marriage of Figaro," by Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart; Concerto for violin, D major, Op. 61, by Ludwig Van Beethoven; Nocturne and Scherzo, "Midsummer Night's Dream," by Felix Mendelssohn; Variations on a Theme by Frieda Busch, Op. 66, A. Busch; and Three Hungarian Dances, by Johannes Brahms.

The Busch Symphony is now making its third tour of the states. The Symphony was founded abroad in 1935 by Adolf Busch. Since that time it has come to America and increased in size. Most of the players are American and many of them were one-time pupils of Adolf Busch.

Nan Merimon will be presented in the next concert on March 14.

SA Social Planned For February 7

A social for all GHS students will be given February 7 in the William Street Gym by the SA social committee.

The theme of a circus under the 'Big Top' will be carried out in both the decorations and program. This will make the second social of the year sponsored by the Student Association through the social committee.

There will be a small admission and all students are invited and urged to attend.

Members of the committee are: co-chairman, F. W. Stanley and Martha Winslow, Millie Cobb, John Duke, Erlene Griffin, Connie Johnson, Donnie Precise, Ronnie Precise, Libby Lou Stuart, and Bill Taylor.

Eight New Students Here

Eight new students have been admitted to Goldsboro High School since the Christmas holidays.

These students are: Jean Beard, from New Hanover High School in Wilmington; Max Epstein, New York City; Elizabeth Holland, Nahant High School; Ila Lee Holland, Nahant High School; Albert Pate, Pikeville High School; Betty Jane Strickland, Pisgah Institute in Candler; James Dorsey Strickland, Pisgah Institute; and James Tyndall, Snow Hill High School.

FHA Holds Annual Party

The FHA had its annual Christmas party in the Home Ec. room just prior to the holidays. Each student brought one can of food to be given to some needy family of the town.

Honor Society Will Meet Here In 1948

The state meeting of the National Honor Society will meet in Goldsboro High School in the spring of 1948, it was decided at a meeting held in Kannapolis on January 17-18.

Martha Winslow represented the GHS chapter of the National Honor Society at the meeting. Approximately one hundred delegates from schools all over the state attended.

Dr. Hervert Herring of Duke University was the principal speaker for the convention and all the delegates took part in discussion groups.

The Goldsboro delegate lead a discussion group and acted as chairman of the Placement Committee.

Next year's officers are Thelma Angell, from Kannapolis, President; Nick Hennessee from Concord, Vice-president; Sue Yount from Charlotte, Secretary.

The GHS National Honor Society has already begun plans for next year's meeting to be held in Goldsboro.

In an impressive candle light service seven members of the Senior class were this week tapped

Leona Flood Plays Concert Here

Leona Flood, ope of America's most up and coming young violinists, was presented by the Music Department and the Goldmasquers on January 10 in the Goldsboro High School auditorium.

Two performances were given, a matinee, which was for the high school and William Street School students, and an evening performance.

The afternoon performance was divided into three groups. The numbers in the first group were: "Melody," a Spanish dance from the Opera, "The Short Life," "Swanee River," by Steven Foster; and "Rondina," by Beethoven.

The only piece in the second group was the last movement from the concerto in E Minor by Mendell.

The third group was composed of: "The Rosary," by Irving Berlin; "The Flight of the Bumblebee," by Rimsky-Korsakoff; "Ave Maria;" and "The Chinese Drum," by Fritz Kriesler.

GHS Students Elected To FHA Offices

Three of the new FHA officers for Wayne County came from Goldsboro.

They are Gilda Vann, secretary; Bessie Culbreth, historian; and Libby Lou Stuart, pianist.

These new officers were installed at the County rally held January 27 at Rosewood. The outgoing secretary, Francis Fulghum, also of Goldsboro, helped with the installation service.

A program of recreation was enjoyed by all.

into membership of the National Honor Society at Goldsboro High School.

The seven students receiving the honor are: Constance Johnson, Susan Smith, Nance Potts, Sara Jane Pate, Edwina Hallman, William Smith Howell, and Robert An-

Goldsboro High School has been approved as a member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools for the year 1946-47. This is the eleventh year that it has been a member.

The object of the Association is to establish helpful relations between the secondary schools and the institutions of higher education within the territory of the Association, and to consider all subjects that tend to the promotion of their interests.

Qualifications for membership in the Association include: (a) No four-year school shall be accredited which does not require for graduation the completion of a four-year high school course of study embracing sixteen units as defined by the Association. No three-year school shall be accredited which does not require the completion of a three-year high school course of study beyond the work of the junior high school, embracing twelve units as defined by the Association.

(b) The minimum scholastic attainment required of the faculty of any accredited secondary school on the Southern list is that not less than 75 per cent of the total number of teachers, including the superintendent, the principal, and the librarian, shall hold bachelor's degrees from colleges approved by the Association.

(c) The maximum teaching load of any teacher of academic subjects is 750 pupil-periods per week with not more than six daily recitations.

(d) The laboratory facilities shall be adequate for the needs of instruction in the courses taught.

(e) The location and construction of the buildings, the lighting, heating and ventilation of the rooms, the nature of the lavatories, corridors, water supply, school furniture, apparatus, and methods of cleaning shall be such as to insure hygienic conditions for both pupils and teachers.

(f) A member school where records for the immediately preceding five years show significant weaknesses and low achievement as evidenced by poor achievement of its pupils in college, low achievement quotients of its pupils on standard tests, low standing as indicated by evaluation using the criteria of the Cooperative Study of Secondary School Standards, large yearly teacher turnover, nepotism, the employment of too many local teachers, or disregard by the community of a good professional attitude, may be warned or dropped from the Association.

(g) The Commission will decline to consider any school whose teaching force consists of fewer than four teachers giving their

Methodist Minister Talks Here

"What are you living for?" was the theme of the talk by Rev. W. C. Wilson, pastor of the Goldsboro Methodist Circuit, at the SA Devotional held in the GHS auditorium on January 17.

Mr. Wilson also brought out that life should be measured by its level, not its length. It doesn't matter how long a person lives, but what is accomplished during his life time.

Mr. Wilson closed his speech with a prayer.

Before the talk Carlton Frederick, accompanied by Edwina Hallman at the piano, sang "I Walked Today Where Jesus Walked."

Polly Edgerton, chairman of the devotional committee, presided over the program.
