

Can You Take It?

I guess you thought you'd get rid of me last month, but you didn't and you won't. All of you will just have to learn I'm exactly like these GHS wolves—so persistent. Since I'm back I might as well gossip a little, so sit tight and pray your name won't be mentioned.

James R. seems to have turned all his attention to Peggy S. lately. We hear they've been seen quite a lot in the halls together. Maybe you'll succeed, James, since the letter Peggy wrote to Gene didn't do much good. Here's luck to you!!!

Has everybody seen the talk of GHS? Well, we have and it's none other than Tom P. and Dana James G. It's sorta heartbreaking to have an admirer turn his affection to someone else after such a long time. Don't you think so, Mildred???

Two's company but six is a crowd—at least that's what Billy Winslow thought, so he got dates for Annette E., and Millie C., Dorothy C., and Ethel P., so he could date Ann L. It must be love!! Nothing else could make a boy work so hard.

Ann Houser must really be a character to be as small as she is. Seems she's after Billy H., Charlie D., and Henry E. Maybe you'd better stick to just Billy, Ann, since Henry has been seen quite a few times recently out at the Tower with Polly E., and Peggy M., and looks like Marilyn T. might be beating your time with Charlie D.

Laura L., and Carl Jinnette, from Dudley, can usually be seen at Ed's most any time. Well, Carl, anyway Laura ducks everytime a light flashes her way. What's the matter, Laura, ashamed of the way you look about that time???

Looks as though Graham Best and Merle Best are both trying to date Joy Creech since Durwood got out of the picture. Oh, well, may the Best man win.

Frankie must still be trying to reduce but we think there are better ways than walking home from the airport. Don't you, Charlie W.?

Must be love that causes that sparkle in Helen L.'s eyes. Has everybody noticed that diamond on her finger. Well, we have and we hear the lucky guy's gonna be Jim Foster and the wedding's coming off pretty soon.

Doctor, Lawyer, or Indian Chief??? No, it's not a Lawyer nor Indian Chief, but a Doctor that Georgia W. has been sporting around with lately. When is the wedding gonna be, Georgia?

Carolyn L. and Jr. McRoy didn't get along so well together because she is still carrying the torch for Clip Noble. You'd better watch that stuff, Carolyn—it's better to have one than none at all, and we hear that Clip is no "one woman's man."

Betty B., what is this about you and Henry M. "going steady"? If that is true you had better stop dating those out-of-town boys 'cause sooner or later Henry will probably find out

Time changes everything!! Yes, it even changed Harvey's love from "Bo" to Ruth E. Wonder if Bo has lost any sleep???

Bessie C. is a one man woman, and that one man is none other than Bill Chestnut from Mount Oliver. We don't blame you either, Bessie, 'cause you two sure look mighty cute together.

Miller must really have it bad to stand around and watch Erlene date Travis and all the other guys she dates and not do anything about it. It must be wonderful to have someone that loves you so. Is it Erlene???

Wonder what some of the GHS students come to school for anyway. Eugene Allen, Joyce Lupton, Pete Kannon and Evelyn Barbee can always be found making love in the Biology room and Jack Wilson and Louise Lewis get along mighty well in the health room. "They don't teach that in school!" —Don't???

Yes, it's finally gotten around to us that Ruth S. doesn't like Troy anymore and has that certain feeling toward Junior McRoy. But Troy doesn't seem to mind because he knows Bennette D., is mighty fond of him.

Everytime the Hi News comes out, Faye B., has a new boyfriend—but this time she has two or three and they are all from Kingston. . . . What's the matter, Faye, can't you make up your mind???

Ann A. seems to be mighty happy that it snowed so much. Chester went to see her on Sunday and had to stay a whole week because the roads were so bad he couldn't go home. . . . Here's hoping it will snow more often, Ann, just for you!

Jo Ann G. is a very charming young girl—in fact, she already has Benny, Travis, Knotty and Durwood charmed. Which one is going to be the lucky guy, Jo???

You can never hide true love—at least, that is what Hugh Pope thought when Evelyn Brown came strolling back to him. We are glad you two are finally back together again, and we hope you'll stay that way.

Bonnie K., and Horace W. are still seen together a lot lately. But why shouldn't they be? After all, the wedding has already been planned if and when she graduates.

Dan Ward is usually on time when he goes to see Doreen D., which is almost every night. No doubt he's found out it's too expensive to be late, 'cause he takes her a box of chocolate covered cherries every time he is.

Looks like it's to some people's advantage to have a brother on the football team—well, Hilda Westbrook's, anyway—Seems she knows the manager, Jimmy Ellis, pretty well!!

Has everyone noticed that mighty cute couple that always seem so happy when they're near each other??? If you haven't, take a look at Skippy C. and Jerry W. The "love bug" has bitten Gene Roberts again. This time he has a terrible crush on Aylene Rollins! What's the matter, Aylene, can't you take a hint???

Eunice has finally made up her mind to give all her affections to Bobby instead of Sam. Better luck to you next time, Sam!!!!

It seems that Anne Hood has taken over R. L. Gurley. What's the matter, Shirley, did you lose out???

What's the matter, Jean Merritt, aren't the Goldsboro schools good enough for you?? If they aren't, why don't you get a transfer over to Wilson (near Jimmy Davis) and then you won't have to take the chance of being caught for skipping school so much!!!!

Well, you cats, you can stop begging; I'm saving some choice bits of news for next time—and I will return. So be good or you'll be sorry!!!!

TayWin Poll

This column marks the appearance of an added feature in the Hi News. We, the writers of this column, will in each issue, ask a question of much importance to the study body.

The question which was asked this issue was "Are you in favor of University Military Training?" The percentage of this question was 53.8 per cent opposed, 42.6 per cent in favor of. This in itself shows how closely divided the students are on this question.

One hundred per cent of the veterans that were asked this question were definitely in favor of Universal Military Training.

One veteran said, "It's the finest thing that could happen to you." One veteran who is a member of the faculty said, "It is a fine plan. It's just like a boy going to a Boy Scout camp. The ages of 18-20 are some of the most important in a boy's life, and a camp of this sort is a good place for them to be."

Several people expressed the opinion that there should be a World Federation, thereby making universal military training unnecessary.

Another person expressed the opinion that "if Russia keeps on like it is going, we will need it." We would like to get the opinion of our readers on this new column.

Please fill in the blank at the bottom of this column and send it into TayWin, care Hi News.

Are you in favor of this column?

Yes----- No-----
If you would like a question answered in this column please ask that question in this blank.

Style Wiles

By Barbara Russell

The appearance of "Ole Man Winter" has brought an array of boots of many different colors and styles. We see mostly red, brown, black and white ones.

The latest sweater fad (or shirt, you might call it) is the "jersey" worn by so many of the girls. Red seems to be the favorite color, but you'll find some have yellow and blue ones.

We have noticed that "Moose" has brought about something new for the boys. I doubt if there are many boys in GHS without one of "those hats." I couldn't give you the correct name (if there is one). I have heard them called "turned up," "crazy," and "dude," but whatever it is, they're pretty sharp, don't you think?

I'm sure some of you girls envy Ruth Edgerton with her fraternity pin. We're proud of you, and think you're both mighty lucky!
