

Can You Take It?

Everybody's mad about source themes. Well, when you read this column you'll probably still be madder. But you know how it is—this wouldn't be GHS if someone wasn't mad.

Some pranks aren't even funny, are they, P.D.? See, that's what you get for being a gentleman. If you had told the truth and said you didn't want to date Joyce B., then you wouldn't have been so embarrassed when you discovered she had a date with Ashton—Oh well, don't get discouraged, bet she's not doing anything in July—why not apply now?

Say, Elizabeth G., what's this "bull" about Pepsi Cola being spilled on you at every Weiner roast you go to. 'Course, nobody knows what we're talking about, so we won't tell them about you, Jack, Jo Ann, and Martin having parties at the sand-hole every week. Anyway, your mothers might find out.

Who was ashamed of you the other night when Libby Lou S. dated Kenneth Fulghum? We heard that while they were riding uptown Kenneth started pulling down the blinds and Libby Lou ducked.

If you see Betsy Peele moping around lately, don't get excited, 'cause she really isn't sick. Robert Thomas left the other day to go play baseball and she can't get along very well without him.

The question around school lately is "What makes Elbert Sills so hard to get?" Maybe some girls ain't got the right technique—Lou! Love is a funny thing. Yes sir, Boxie even smiles at people now. Could Mildred Bryan be responsible for this improvement?

Wonder what all the feuding between Carolyn L. and Virginia Barfield is all about? Could it be over that cute Norwood H.?

"Everybody gets in on the act." Yep, every dog has his day. Filthy was seen riding around with Erline Griffin on one Monday night—maybe more of us girls need cars—after all, it is leap year.

Spring brings love to everyone's heart. Ruth Shaver seems to have that certain feeling for Jack Wilson. Come on, Jack, let's not be giving her a hard time.

Baseball seems to be a favorite sport with everyone. Joan Crumpler surely was having a fine time—was it playing baseball, or being with Charlie Darden?

First you meet the boy, then you meet his family, then you get married. Guess Shirley J. is well on her way. She spent last weekend in Kinston with Sonny H.'s family. When is the third step happening, Shirley?

The biggest fish always gets away, but Virginia Mac is one of those safety girls. She brought the biggest fish back. (In fact, she took him with her, too.) Garbage says the beach was fine. Fishing?—well, he didn't do too much of that!

muscle woman. Yep, there's a lot of power in that frail little Kitty Keller. She was even taking Bill Cole around on her shoulders at the sandhole the other day.

The case of the missing potato chips is now the mystery around school. Maybe Mimi needs FBI men around. Well, we'll take over and solve the case. Why not ask Tommie C. and her date (not Gordon, mind you) and Tootsie C. and her date? What's the matter, don't you people get fed at home?

In 1492 Columbus sailed the ocean blue, and there was gossip even then about Queen Isobel and Christopher. Well, you know how it is. Where would this column be without gossip? After all, we've got to have something to talk about. So if you don't tell us, we'll find out. Lula knows all. Yeh, we don't need a crystal ball.

We have stool pigeons to keep us informed on the dope—dopes! After reading this, we're sure you realize that "Crime doesn't pay." Just remember Lula knows all, hears all, sees all. That's us!

DISC HITS

by Lou Yerk

Here we go again with more platter chatter. Here's one for all you steady couples, "Haunted Heart"—It's especially good by Jo Stafford. For an oldie, how 'bout "I can't give you anything but love." That's still a fine tune. One for the cats of GHS is "Keep a Dollar in Your Pocket," "I Told You I Love You, Now Get Out," and "58th Street Jump." Here's one that has been good for a long time, and that's, "By the Light of the Silvery Moon." Another that is still rather popular and will be for a long time is, "Ballerina."

Since there are not many new tunes for this month, guess this will be all for this time. See ya!!!
