numerous school activities. As a freshman he served as homeroom president. He also served on the social committee and was on the Junior football squad.

Donald made the Varsity football squad his sophomore year and earned a Varsity "G." He was elected into the Varsity Club. As a Goldmasquer, Donald participated in all the plays in one way or another. He played the role of "Dick Lawrence" in the play "Janie" and the Indian Chief in "Ramona."

The Junior year was a big one for Donald. He was selected a marshal and tapped into the National Honor Society. He was also elected vice president of the Varsity Club and continued his football activities as starting end for the Earthquakes. The fields of dramatics and radio were not neglected by Donald. He was very active in both. He had the role of the "Rat" in "Seventh Heaven" and the role of a drunk choirmaster in the Junior play, "Our Town." The office of vice president of the Goldmasquers was also filled by Donald. In the spring of last year, he was unanimously elected president of the Student Association, for 1947-48.

This year Donald has done a wonderful job with the S.A. He was again starting end for the "Quakes." Though he has not had dramatics as a subject, he has been active in that field. "Grant Kincaid" in the play "The Land Is Bright" was played by Donald. The New York trip was another event for him; he was the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court in "The First Lady." The most recent honor to come to Donald was the selection of "Who's Who Among Students in America High Schools."

Sally's Ears

Everybody is excited about the Junior-Senior and it's just too bad the paper goes to press the very day the outstanding dirt of the year is being made. I'll get it next time, though, with no pity being shown, so be good at least that night.

Here's some blabber.

I heard you stepped out on us on May Day, Jane P. Who was this lucky fellow from Wilson? His first name was Billy, I know, but what was his last name? You say he was MEAN? Well, most wolves are. Now just one more question. Aren't you and Henry M. trying to work up a little case? I thought so!

Only a short while ago Ed Strickland was declared a free man again. Have him explain it if you haven't heard. However, the school boy genius didn't like being his own boss, so look what he hooked: a mighty swell gal called Jo Ann F. She's a fine gal, Ed, and I see you lose no time crying over spilled milk. Wise!

Who wrote the love note Miss Ipock found? I know, but I will mention no names, except I would say John got a raw deal.

Carl C. seems to be going after Ruth E. in a big way. After playing in two love scenes in the last

Class Elections Will Be May 17-21

Class elections will be held May 17-21.

The schedule of the week is as follows: Monday, nominations announced; Monday-Wednesday, nominations by petitions; Thursday, campaign speeches; and Friday, voting.

For the first time the present eighth grade elected their freshman class officers before entering high school. Their week of elections was May 10-14.

two plays I would say, look out, Sonny. And, of course, there's no telling how many scenes in private while on the New York trip. While on the subject, Erlene sure has been giving Martha R. a fit since returning. She dates Travis one night and Bobby the next. Well, each man for himself, and remember, all's fair in love and war. They tell me Jerry W. and Skippy C. have busted up. Too bad! You made a mighty cute couple, but I know someone who doesn't care. He means business, too, Jerry come on gal, give him a chance!

Dan W. has been seen walking Lorraine N. around the halls lately. Boy, you are the last one I expected to get serious. Luck to you.

Well, James T. seems to have a taste for all the gals. He is seen walking uptown with a different one each day. Say, you don't know what's wrong, James?

This isn't much gossip, but maybe half of it won't be left out as was the case last issue. Be seeing you next time with the knock-outs of the Junior-Senior.
