Idle Chatter

The room is stealthily quiet. No sound is detectable but a sharp tap, tap, tap. The door is locked; shades are drawn and the room blazes with light. A harrowed figure runs his fingers through his hair, thinking intensely; watching the minutes tick away. Tomorrow was the day. He must hurry. He must be through. Why oh, why had he waited till the last minute.

Suddenly, as if forced, he swings into action. He works quietly, almost wretchedly for several minutes. Muttering under his breath, he throws the work aside. Once more he tires; again throwing it aside. He begins again, again — and again. Finally, the floor is littered with his work. He sits still, strangely motionless, staring into space. His body moves as he stretches out in the chair and he squints at the ceiling. Suddenly he becomes full of life and a smile forms on his woe-begone face. He begins to laugh like a madman, and kicks the scattered papers aside tempestuous by.

And then, just as quickly as it began, he calms down, begins work again and is once more the figure of despair. He goes about his work with sobriety and determination. And after hours and hours of work, he takes the paper out of the typewriter and begins to read his work.

Yes, he has at last decided "what responsibility the United States should have in world affairs."

Junior Quakes Drop Four Of Past 5 Games

Goldsboro's Junior Quakes have dropped four out of the last five games played.

Goldsboro Vs. N. broughton
The Junior Quakes were handed a loss by the non-conference boys from Capital city Friday night, January 21 at the Williams Street Gym by a score of 41 to 32.

At the intermission the Juniors were trailing by 10 points and failed to cut the lead down by the end of the game.

Jack Burruss hit for 12 points to lead the Blysak charges in scoring, while for the Broughton team it was Bob Williamson with 14 points.

Goldsboro Vs. Hugh Morson
The Raleigh boys of Hugh Morson High school out on a burst of speed in the last half to trim down a 17 to 13 lead and defeat the J. V.'s of Goldsboro 38 to 28 Tuesday night January 28 at the Hugh Morson Gym in Raleigh.

G. F. Seymour playing for the first time this year because of a knee injury was high scorer for the Juniors with 8 points. Bobby Ussery led the Morson team with 12 baskets.

Goldsboro Vs. Fayetteville
The Jay-Vee team broke their eight game losing streak on Friday night February 1 when they defeated the Fayetteville Puppies 43-36 in the William Street Gym.

Both teams played on fairly even terms for the first three quarters but the little Quakes broke loose in the final quarter to win. The Quakes' drive was sparked by Jimmy Shumate who scored 13 of his 15 points to lead the little Quakes to their first win in nine outings.

Goldsboro Vs. Wilson
For one half it looked again as if the little edition of the Quakes were on the comeback trail but a bad case of fumbilitis in the second half and an inspired Wilson Junior squad in the second half caused the locals to go down for the second time before the little Cys. The score this time was 36-31 for the game which was staged in the Atlantic Christian College Gym in Wilson.

After leaving the floor at the intermission with a 21-18 lead the Bbay Cys, paced by big Paul Davis, who scored 20 points, pulled ahead to put the Quakes out in the cold as far as the game was concerned.

Carlie Hinnant led the Quake scoring with 10 tallies.
