

Have You Been To New York-- The Big City?

Have you ever been to New York? You have! Well good! And how did you like the big city? The theaters, the stores, the neon signs, the subways—oh, the subways—those wretched subways.

Well, me, not having sense enough to keep up with my train ticket decided to go back to the recently checked out of hotel to try to find it. Since Martha and Dawson were going to do a little shopping, (on Dawson's 90 cents) I had to catch the subway by myself.

After going down the subway entrance I put my dime in the slot—and my journey began. Between following the white lights, red lights, green lights, local subway signs, express subways, up town subway signs, down town signs I just finally gave up—closed my eyes for a second and the next thing I knew I was on a subway—

Chambers Street... Now wait a minute this isn't my subway—"Oh, pardon me lady, is this the way to 96th street?" Deciding for myself that I was on the wrong subway, I hopped off and waited for the next one. And boy what a relief it was when I hit 42 street (Times Square) knowing that I was headed in the right direction even though I did still have 54 blocks to go.

5 Years Ago

We're here again folks! I'll tell you the dope on the happenings of the year 1944, just five short years ago. Here goes! Do you remember?

1. Ira Montague served as president of the Goldmasquers.

2. G. H. S. had recreation in room 6 at lunch periods for dancing, etc.

3. Hilda Powell, Martha Winslow, and Zeno Spence were sent as delegates to the North Carolina State Student Council Congress in High Point.

4. New teachers added this year were: Mrs. J. E. Britt, Mrs. Dewey Slocumb, Mr. Eugene Roberts, and Miss Hyacynth Willis.

5. Thirty-two students took D. E. and D. O. in the year 1944.

6. The Goldmasquers started out their year by presenting "Lost Horizon" starring Bruce Berkeley, Gaynelle Sauls, and Gertrude Blow.

7. David Stafford and Buddy Keen served as Co-captain of the Varsity Earthquakes.

8. Remember Donald Malpass, the Earthquake star, who served on the team as a guard; he won the sportsmanship award in the year 1944.

9. The Varsity Club sponsored

10. Theresa Kannan and Ralph Bland were elected most representative.

11. Peggy Pate and Pat Preston, football player, were crowned as the most outstanding athletes of the year 1943.

12. The Junior Play was "Mrs. Moonlight," starring Elizabeth Myatt, Robert Mitcham, and Jerry McArthur.

Alumni News

Well Spring is here again and all the little "chickens" are flocking home from college for the Spring holidays.

Some of the girls and boys seen around Goldsboro in the last week are J. D. Sasser, Moon Ennis, Libba Kornegay, John Ray Edmondson, Charles Croone, Fred Tyndall, Davis Byrd, Miller Eason, Donald Pike, John Thompson and D. J. Rose.

Albert Pate who is a former Junior of G. H. S., who quit school to join the Air Force, visited his friends at G. H. S.
