Enuff Said

Somebody sure got their classes mixed up when they classed the classes in the following classification. (If you don't get the point, read it again. Those "classes" will sure get you in a rut! Know a synonym for the word?)

The freshmen are known as "Green Fresh", so named because "green" (in a sense) means being new at something but from the looks of the honor roll list, the G.H.S. freshmen are having no trouble at all!

The sophomores are in reality, young ladies and gentlemen. Although they are given the name of "Silly Sophs" we know our sophomores better than that — but on second thought, perhaps they are a trifle foolish and silly at times!

Juniors are supposed to be "wise". Did anyone ever take a survey tivo yfter . survey to verify that? (Fellow Juniors, I take it all back.) I just didn't want to appear prejudiced. Okay?)

We top "the wise" with last, but of course not least, the Seniors, better known to the social world — or was it the underground — as "Sophisticated Seniors". Ask Ripley about that one! kI'll have nothing to say on the subject. But I will close with a well known, well used phrase which bears thought. "Everyone has a right to his own opinion."

Time Out

"How did you sleep?" asked the hostess sweetly. "Was that couch all right for you?"

"It wasn't so bad," said her son's college friend amiably. "I got up from time to time and rested."

Correct

Mother (teaching son arithmetic): Now take the Jones family. There is the mother, daddy, and baby. How many does that make?

Son: Two and one to carry!

Miss McCauley Is Teaching History Here

By Dawson Thompson

"And who is she?" said one to another as Miss Nancy McCauley passed them in the hall on her way to class. Just to straighten everybody out, I'll clue ya!

After graduating from Farmville State Teacher's College in Farmville, Virginia, where she majored in English and History, she taught in Waynesboro and Amelia Courthouse, Virginia.

But, what's the good of teaching it if you can't be in North Carolina? So, she proceeded to attend the University of North Carolina to work toward getting her Master's degree in History to be qualified to secure the state's graduate certificate.

Right at the present time, she is a student teacher for Mr. Charles Doak's second and third period History classes.

Besides her teaching duties, Miss McCauley is directing the floor show for the Junior-Senior and will assist Mr. Clifton Britton with the next play, "The Swan." She will spend the final nine-week period in GHS.

During her stay in Goldsboro, Miss McCauley will live with Coach and Mrs. Chick Doak on North Jackson Street.

Favorite Two Names Noted

Are you pleased with the name William or Barbara? Then rejoice and be happy.

According to recent tabulations for a poll of the most popular names for boys and girls, Barbara and William had top billing. James and John were the two names running in second place for the boys, and Joan had second place for the girls.

Last names ran in this order: Smith, in first place; Jackson, second, and Williams, third.

Style Wiles

By Sara Thompson

"Spring is sprung—
The grass is riz—
Wonder where
Those flowers is?"

Of course that isn't original, but it suits the purpose.

The beginning of spring is a problem to the girls. You know, too cool one day for that new summer dress you have (or maybe you're wearing last year's, like yours truly) or too hot for old faithful's (skirt and sweaters). So maybe you just compromise and wear a skirt and blouse.

This is taking place right now; however, when this issue comes out, everybody, (girls that is) will probably be wearing dresses. Its gonna be scorching!

Everybody has gone for those new loud "tee shirts" or whatever the name is. They come in big colored stripes with white, and all kinds of geometrical designs.

Take heed, girls! When you don your dresses, let me remind you that your elbows are showing. (I'm not telling any secrets.) Now it's all right for the mound for the Quakes and are yours rough, chapped, and dingy looking? If you have this serious condition take a lemon peeling (any lemon peeling from California, Florida, south, tropical islands, anywhere, just so it's a lemon peeling!) and scrub your elbows with it. After adding soap and water, feel the results. You'll discover you have a softer, cleaner elbow. Honest, this is no joke. It really works. Of course, the boys are entitled to this prescription as well as girls.

So this afternoon if you see the girls running, pay no attention, because they're going home (unless they want to scrub their elbows at the Dun Dee or Opera Shoppe) to have softer, cleaner elbows in the future.

Opera Notes

Tim: I work in the opera at night and carry a spear in the last act.

Nancy: But how do you keep awake that late?

Tim: Fellow behind me carries a spear, too.

Remedy

Mary: Quick, wake up, Sue! I heard a mouse squeak.

Sue: What do you expect me

Easter Season History Given

Everyone knows that Easter commemorates the Resurrection of Jesus Christ but few know how and where certain customs originated. For instance the name, "Easter" comes from an ancient Anglo Saxon goddess, "Eostre." As goddess of light and spring, Eostre was honored with annual spring festivals held every April.

As time passed the old gods and goddesses were put aside for Christianity and then the festival was in honor of the resurrection of Christ. The festival was still known as Easter, though, after the old goddess.

Easter was the greatest festival of the year to the early Christians. New convents were baptized on Easter Sunday and as a sign of their purity, wore white robes the following week. This ceremony is still preserved by the Greek Orthodox church in Russia and the Balkans.

According to the decision of the church council of Nicaea, Easter should be celebrated the first Sunday after the first full moon on or after March 21. Easter can come as early as March 22 and as late as April 25.

The white lily, a symbol of purity and light is known as the Easter flower and adorns church alters on Easter Sunday.

The custom of having colored eggs and rabbits also dates back to the ancient times. The egg symbolized life and was frequently colored purple, signifying royalty, and red, which typifies the blood of redemption. Other colored eggs have no significance. The Easter Bunny is symbolic of abundant life.

Joy Notes

By Graham Best

Thanks to:

1. Mr. C. W. Triford and Mr. Frank Remsberg manager of the local theatres, for allowing us to see "Joan Of Arc."

2. The advisors of the senior class for taking the seniors to E. C. T. C.

3. The athletic committee for the uniforms which were given to our tennis team.

4. The Sophomore Class for the most enjoyable Easter program which they presented to the student body.

5. The tennis team for their very fine showing against Wilson.

6. The Industrial Arts class for building bass horn cases for the band.
