

Idle Chatter

She walked and walked. The road seemed endless but at last she could see a large golden gate ahead of her. "This must be it," she thought. "Boy, if the gang could only see me now. They thought I'd never make it, I'll bet."

She wondered if she should knock. Might as well—got to get in somehow—can't stay out here forever. She lifted the great knocker and let it fall back. The air was filled with the sound of chimes. A tall man with a long white beard, wearing a white robe, opened the gate.

"Yes?" he said.
She had to hold her head back to look at him. "I—I'm new here. May I come in?" she stammered.

"Let me check the book," he said. In his hand he was holding a large scroll. "Ah, yes, here is your name. Now, if you'll just answer a few questions. Just routine, you understand. It's a formality we all have to how this happened. It has never happened before. You may go back if you wish—"

Her face lit up. "Oh, could I? Please don't think I don't

Beauty And The Beast

Beauty is as beauty does, so they say. But in fashions, appearances make a difference. Creatures that swim, crawl, walk and fly all make their donation to women's apparel. Always be kind to dumb animals. See what they do for us girls.

like it here but I would certainly hate to leave G. H. S. now, if you don't mind. Thank you very much."

She turned and started back down the path. He watched until she was out of sight and then turned to an angel who had come to stand beside him.

"That was really kind of you, Saint Peter," the angel said. "Why did you do it? It really was her time you know."

"I know. I just hated to take her away from G. H. S."

"Yes, sir," she said. "You're St. Peter, aren't you?"

"Yes. Now, where are you from?"

"Goldsboro High school, sir, but please don't hold that against me."

"Oh, you'll find us very understanding. We don't hold a person's past against him here."

"Thank you."

"My dear," he spoke softly. So softly she had to strain her ears to catch what he said. "I'm afraid we made a grave mistake in your case."

She began to get worried. Were they going to reject her now, after she had walked all this way? Tears swelled up in her eyes.

"Oh, don't be alarmed. It is just that I have checked my dates and I find that you are not due here for another twenty years. I can't understand

Life Is Awful For The Desk

Sometimes I get awfully depressed. I think I must be one of the unluckiest things in the world. People abuse me right and left. They cut names into me and mark all over me. They kick me and bump into me and never, never say they are sorry. Sometimes they say they wish they would never have to see me again. I don't know why people hate me so! I have never hurt anyone. I have many brothers and sisters and they, too, are mistreated. On, life is cruel to me!

I am only a desk and I hold

Well, that's enough of those. Our thanks go to "The Grover Star."
