Remember When—

By Graham Best

- Do you remember when...
1. LaNelle could wear Lelia Ruth's sweaters?
 2. Junior McRoy wasn't the high school hero?
 3. P. L. Joyner looked like he was walking on his knees?
 4. Boys didn't hang out windows?
 5. If you were caught smoking, you might as well shoot yourself?
 6. Billy Ruffin didn't know the first step about dancing?
 7. Mike Pate wasn't interested in wrestling?
 8. There wasn't any convertibles around G. H. S.
 9. Maxie Epstein didn't think he was good looking?
 10. The "Hi News" had a few Gossip columns?
 11. Two-thirds of the boys' hair had that peroxidized look.

"Will your wife hit the ceiling when you come in at this hour?"

"Probably, she's a rotten shot."

National Honor Society Taps Twelve New Members

Twelve new members were tapped into the Charles B. Aycock Chapter of the National Honor Society at a recent meeting.

Selections were made from the Senior and Junior classes.

Those from the Senior class were: Peggy Ann West, Patsy Donnell, Bennette Daughtry, Jimmy Purser, Bill Hawley, and Victor Herring.

Juniors were: Anne Butler, Florence Bowden, Peggy Ann Britt, Karl Albert, Ashton Griffin, and Eddie Mitchell.

Ethel Parks, president of the local N.H.S., presided at the candlelight ceremony. Jerry Sanford enacted the role of Torch Bearer and Joyce Bagley was Guardian of the Emblem. Leadership, Scholarship, Character and Service, the traits, upon which membership into the N.H.S. is based, were represented by Betty Best, Frances Hollowell, Lucille Williams and Merle Rosser. Each girl was dressed in white and wore a regalia over the shoulder upon which was written the quality she represented.

Special music for the program was provided by Miss Margaret Denmark who sang "This is My Task" and "I Would Be True". "Stout-Hearted Men" was sung by a group of male voices.

The program was carried out by members taken into the Society at previous meetings. These were Lewis Bryan, Dana James Gulley, Bill Winslow, Troy Pate, Jerry Sanford, Ethel Parks, Betty Denmark, Joyce Bagley, and Shirley Haynes.

The membership oath was administered the new members by Betty Denmark, vice-president.

Mr. Eugene Roberts pronounced the benediction.

Seniors' Song

We're the class of '49
Leaving lots of fun behind;
Thinking as we go
Of the friends we know.
We will never forget those days
That led to our success;
We'll remember through the years
Our dear old G. H. S.
(In this and the following three issues we will publish the class songs. Watch for them and get acquainted with them.)

It seems that in the days of yore, a young feller was taking his date for a ride in his buggy, with his horse, "Closer," in front. Occasionally, he would say, "Get up, Closer." (The question is, was he talking to the horse or to his girl!?!?)

Can You Guess 'Em?

1. Brown eyes and black hair. The fairy tale lady over the air?
2. On dramatics he's very deep; He drives a station wagon jeep?
3. At his desk he will often sit; In Journalism he's one big wit?
4. In Tennis he's the champ, But in Geometry he's a tramp?
5. In the band she gives you a thrill. Because she plays the Glock-insphill?
6. Betty Hutton she imitates; Bobby Wiggs she sometimes dates?
7. On the harmonica he can play; At Camp Ogallala he does stay?
8. She's chief marshal and in the N. H. S. And her name you can't help but guess?
9. Co-editor of the "Hi-News" is his jjob, And he receives letters from a Cobb?
10. Miss Jone's little boy he is; Driving that Ford he's one big whizz?
11. He is a G. H. S. football star, Jerry always wants to know where he are?
12. She's been here only for a little while;

You can tell her by her great big smile?
13. He takes D. E. and work at "Penny's,"
For his friends he do have many,
14. She is a lady of the fine sex,
And she lives down yonder in Apex?
15. Chief Marshal next year he will be,
"Out of this world" he was seen in Act 3
16. Buy a dexter twin washer at a convenient time,
To help support a buddy of mine,
17. A fine scrapbook she has made,
And he has a platinum blonde haid (head)
