

300 Guests Attend Senior Reception

The Senior reception was held Friday, May 9th, in the Goldsboro High School cafeteria. The Senior parents and guest were invited to the cafeteria immediately after the Senior play, "The Swan," presentation.

The cafeteria was decorated in red and white, the Senior class colors. Punch, nuts and individual cakes were served. Those serving on the reception committee were Joyce Carter, Jean Daugtry, Louise Lewis, Jack Rose, Margery Wilson, Ollie Tyn-dall, James Seay, Roger Roberts, Geraldine Williams, Thelma Norris, Mary Howell and Bessie Culbreth.

In the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Twiford, the Senior class officers and the Senior teachers. The guests were asked to register before they left.

Remember When—

1. Joyce Pate had pigtails?
2. Adaline Vann had short bangs?
3. R. L. Gurley didn't comb his hair?
4. Sara Dewey didn't study?
5. Bobby McLamb didn't have a Toni?
6. Lovelace Bell weighed less than 200 lbs.?
7. G. H. S. had a terrace?
8. The senior boys didn't date the freshmen girls?
9. The junior class had enough money to have a social?
10. Annette Edgerton was considered a frail girl?

Disc Hits

Here it is May 20. Only 14 days before the end of school!

Everybody's making a lot of use of "Congratulations" (you know, the song by Jo Stafford and Gordon McCrae). Most heartily dedicated to the seniors everywhere. G. H. S. is a mighty sad place the last week of the school year, isn't it. Everybody leaving . . . well, three fourths of them anyhow. To those that can't leave our alma mater we dedicate "Fool That I am." Mighty fine piece of music recorded by Sammy Kaye.

Just recently "that" song called "Again" made famous by frog voiced Mel Torme, was number four on the nation wide Hit Parade.

The next sentence is quoted from Fred Fletcher, "This song has an excellent chance of becoming number one on the hit parade if the waltzes ever get off, (no offense of course to 'Forever and Ever')."

The song being discussed in "Riders of the Sky"—first recorded by Vaughn Monroe and more recently by Bing Crosby. Fine music!

"Single Saddle" is a new one also by Vaughn Monroe. Vaughn's right in there pitching.

If you hear a new singer called Ray Gilbert on your favorite record show, he's really not a new one—just take note of this: Gilbert has been writing hit tunes for the movies for years. Some of those were "Bai," "You Belong To My Heart," "Zip-A-Dee-Doo-Dah," "Quanto Le Gusta." Not long ago, a friend took one of Gilbert's recordings—unknownly to Gilbert—to Columbia

Records and the result was that he was signed up to a recording contract as a singer. His first platter was "Coca-Roca" and "Pin Striped Pants."

"Kiss Me Kate," keeps packing people in, according to Broadway reports, and record makers are keeping busy turning out selections from the popular musical by Cole Porter.

Among the latest is a Capital album of four records.

Jo Stafford and Gordon MacRae (vocalists, and Paul Weston's orchestra offer their usual creditable performances in the right numbers.

A Capital single from another Broadway show, "Tales of the South Pacific" is "I'm Gonna Wash That Man Right Out of My Hair," featuring Jo Stafford with Paul Weston's orchestra.

Have you heard "I'm In Love With A Wonderful Guy," by Margaret Whiting? Or "Someone To Watch Over Me," by Doris Day—dedicated to Anne Lee Pennington?

Until next issue when the theme will be "On Graduation Day" we say good bye and good listening.

GHS Biology Students Win Awards

Several Goldsboro High School biology students entered the annual flower show sponsored by the Goldsboro Woman's Club.

The students contributed insect collections, dish gardens, bird houses, home-made corsages, leaf collections and nature booklets.

The rewards received were: Shirley Best—Insect Collection—Blue Ribbon; Lib Johnson—Dish Garden—Yellow Ribbon; Lib Johnson, Poster—Blue Ribbon; Sam Donnell—Bird House—Yellow Ribbon; Hilda Westbrook—Home-Made Corsage—Red Ribbon; Christine Bartlett—Home-Made Corsage—Red Ribbon.

What Would You Do With It???

What would you do if you had one jeune fille? This was the question that was asked several of the Journalism students.

Sara Thompson—put gas in it. Carlyle Edmundson—I'd sleep with it.

Ann Smith—Leave it on Miss Mixon's front door step.

Elton Warrick—Tie a string on it and let it fly.

Dawson Thompson—Give it to Miss Brooks.

Martha Kornegay—Take it swimming.

George Langston—Take it to Algebra.

Jerry Worrell—Put it in the icebox.

Dot Crawford—Give it to Annette.

Betty Gainey—Take it to the Drive-In.

By the way it is a young girl in French.

Class Of '52 Social Held Friday

The freshman class of Goldsboro High School held their first social Friday night, May 13, in the William Street Gym. The theme was "What Do they Do On A Rainy Night In Goldsboro?" The same decorations were used as for the Junior-Senior.

The program began with a solo by Nancy Parker. Peggy Hawkins did a snake dance. Steve Dail and Perry Hill did several numbers followed by the girls chorus. Members were: Nancy Bridges, Nancy Parker, Mela Royal, Sally Edgerton, and Peggy Hawkins. Emily and Elton Warrick did jitterbug skits. Emily Howell did imitations by records. The Grand Finale was the girls' singing, "What Do They Do On A Rainy Night In Goldsboro?"

Teachers

T—Is for the teachers who have taught us through the years.

E—Is for the errors that we've made.

A—Stands for the tit arilnatest—Stands for the attitude and abilities the teachers possess.

C—Is for the commands that we obeyed.

H—Is for the homework which the teachers heap upon us.

E—Is for the effort we have shown.

R—Is for the riot that we make when going to lunch.

S—Is for the several years we have grown.

Put them all together they spell teacher.

So Mr. Roberts, here is my feature.
