H.M.S. Pinafore Is First Musical By Goldmasquers

On the evenings of May 20 and 22, a cast of forty-five singers and actors made up of townspeople and students will present H. M. S. Pinafore by Gilbert and Sullivan. This musical comedy was written a little over seventy-five years ago in England, and since that time has spread in popularity until it is played all over the English-speaking nations.

Pinafore is the first show of the musical comedy type to be produced in Goldsboro in thirty-five years. An evening of excellent entertainment is promised for those who attend.

Junior Week Ends After Week Of Junior Privileges

The Juniors got a look at what to expect next year as Junior Week got underway on Tuesday. It was announced that all the other classes were to obey the wishes of the Juniors and were to follow them in the lunch line.

The week was officially started with a skit advertising the Junior play, the "Return of the Vagabond." Those participating in the skit were Donald Jorden, Louis Hallow, Veryl Trublood, Coach Doak, Anne Smith, Frances Malpass, Geraldine Price, Pearl Happer, Lillian Haynes, Sarah Casey, and Arnold Stanton.

Six Students Attend FHA Meet

The Future Homemakers of America held a State Rally at Hugh Morson High School in Raleigh on April 15.

Goldsboro High School was entitled to six delegates. They were Hilda Westbrook, Hilda Toller, Colleen Cooper, Martha Rose, Christine Cobb and Nadine Howell. Janice Whaley and Peggy Ann Britt, candidates for the State Homemaker Degree, also attended the meeting.

Martha Rose represented Goldsboro in the dress revue. She modeled a black evening dress with white accessories, which she made. One hundred girls, representing different chapters throughout the state, participated in the dress revue.

There were 1250 girls at the rally, representing 88 counties. The Goldsboro chapter mother, Mrs. R. L. Whaley, attended the meeting.

Outstanding feature of the meeting was a panel discussion on boy-girl relations led by Rev. Marvin Vick, chairman of the Family Life Council of North Carolina.

Varsity Dance Date Set For May 27

May 27 has been announced as the date for the 1950 Varsity Club dance. As yet most of the plans are unknown but the annual event will take place in the American Legion Hut at Seymour Johnson Field.

The theme centers around a large revolving ball suspended from the center. A beach effect will be carried out through the building. The usual Varsity figure led by this year's Varsity Queen Lib Smith will highlight the event.

Kassel, Miller, McArthur Burrus, Thompson Win

Jimmy Frazier, a rising senior, was elected as president of the Student Association in the recent S. A. election. Others elected to serve with him are: vice-president, Carl Kassel; corresponding secretary, Callie McArthur; recording secretary, Reba Miller; treasurer, Jack Burrus; and head cheerleader, Sara Thompson.

Varsity Hayride

Fourteen Varsity club members and their dates attended a hayride and wiener roast affair at the Cliffs State Park Saturday night, April 22. Because of the weather some couples went by car while others went on a truck.

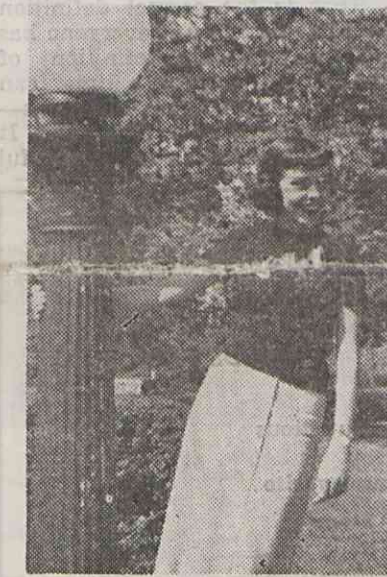

Hot dogs and all the trimmings were served to those attending. The food committee composed of Elton Warrick, Walter Culbreth and Jimmy Frazier, was in charge of the event.

Frazier has done outstanding work in his high school career. He is a member of the National Honor Society, Varsity Club, French Club, Men's Chorus, Goldmasquers. As a freshman, Frazier served his class as treasurer; he played Junior Varsity Football two years, and Varsity, one. This year he attended the N.C.S.C.C. as an official delegate of G.H.S. For three years he has been a representative to the S. A. Council.

Kassel, who is a sophomore, has done much work in dramat-

Adams Anderson Prexy

Judy Adams, a member of the graduating class of '49 was recently elected to serve as President of the Student Government Association of Anderson College for the term of 1950-51.

During her high school career, Judy held several offices and was active in many school activities. She was an avid worker in the Goldmasquers Organization and was well known for the many fine performances she gave.

Upon entering Anderson College in the fall of '49 she began work on the advertising staff of the school paper, "The Yodler." Among other honors she has received this year, Judy was elected as secretary of the Westminster Fellowship of the Presbyterian Church. She has been selected to serve as President of the organization for next term. Recently Judy attended a state (South Carolina) Westminster Conference at Winthrop as a representative of Anderson.

She is now resident marshal of the freshman class and secretary of the Cosmopolitan Club.

Her latest honor was that of being chosen as an attendant to the May Queen for the annual May Day.

Seniors Attend ECTC Senior Day

Approximately 2,000 seniors from various high schools in eastern North Carolina were the guests of Eastern Carolina Teachers College in Greenville at its annual Senior Day held on Friday, April 21. Among these was the senior class from Goldsboro High School. The group traveled to ECTC by cars with Miss Agnes Rudisell and Mr. Clifton Britton as chaperones. The following scheduled was observed

'Return of Vagabond' Opens Tomorrow Night

The curtain will rise tonight at 8:15 on George M. Cohan's "The Return of the Vagabond," sequel to "The Tavern" which was presented by the Varsity Club and the Goldmasquers last season.

This play is a Junior Class-Goldmasquer collaboration. Appearing in the cast are: Jimmy Shumate as the Vagabond, Ashton Griffin—The taverner, Florence Bowden—The taverner's wife, Lucille Williams—The taverner's daughter, Harry Scott—The taverner's son-in-law, K. D. Pyatt—The tavern-keeper, Carl Kassel—the tavernkeeper's son, Joy Creech—his daughter-in-law, Jimmy Thomas—Algernon, David Liles—the Doctor, Sam Donnell—The Banker, Arnold Stanton—The Sheriff, Louis Hallow—The Police Captain, Junior Cousins—His assistant, Lovelace Bell—A stranger, Jimmy Bradley—A little stranger, Marvin Garris—The cop, another stranger, Junior Cousins—The coachman.

The action takes place in Freeman's Tavern. This is the same setting used for the Tavern. Jerry Sanford made a big hit in "The Tavern" and Jimmy Shumate has been acclaimed by those having seen rehearsals as worthy of his role.
