

A GHS "Webster" Defines Love

Love is a strange disease, it affects no two persons exactly alike. There are no definite symptoms. It occurs chiefly between the ages of six and a hundred and six. It makes some people lose their heads and others find theirs. It sends some soaring into clouds and others crashing to the ground. It leaves you with a feeling of anxiety or hilarity, never striking a happy medium.

With some it is a chronic disease, with others acute, leading to matrimonial complications. There is no known immunization or cure. You either kill it, adapt yourself to it, or let it die a natural death. It seems more prominent at certain times of the year.

No man has isolated it in one area and can give it no better name than "Love".

No one has ever really seen the germ that spreads this disease, but it is generally known by the name of Cupid.

No matter what precautions you take, it manages to find its way into your heart (affecting this organ, chiefly). It is not known to be contagious, just widespread. Many have looked for a cure, but none have found it. It is so widespread in fact, that the license bureaus have been quite busy, and there is a serious housing shortage. It is so prominent that it has been handed down from generation to generation and is likely to be handed down from now on. It

Disc Hits

"If I Knew You Were Coming I'd A Baked A Cake", our invitation for you to join us and get the lowdown on what's new in music.

A few months back if you remember, something titled "Mule Train" came out. Well, it's supposed to be music, however we doubt it. Now we have a new version. What is it? "Chinese Mule Train"! And it's by none other than Spike Jones.

Perry Como puts you in a dreamy, sentimental mood with his recording of "It Isn't Fair". "There's No Tomorrow" is another "love song" and taking honors is Tony Martin.

An oldie pops up every once in a while and takes to the spotlight. Don't know about the spotlight, but Bing Crosby and the Andrews Sisters do a fine job on "You Are My Sunshine". "I'm My Daddy's Baby", it's cute and something a little different. So why not listen, you may like it.

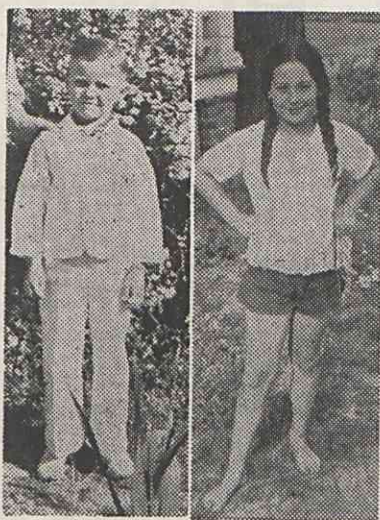

Pert and pretty Doris "Do Do" Day does a terrific job on "Imagination", of course this is not unusual for "Do Do" being as she just knows how to do it when it comes to singing a pretty song.

From Betty Grable's latest movie, "Wabash Avenue" we hear "Baby, Won't You Say You Love Me," it's nice on the ears, especially when Betty sings it.

"By-By Baby", we'll be seeing you next issue.

Projects Entered By Biology Classes In Flower Show

All five of the Biology classes under Miss Jones entered various projects in the flower show which was held May 2 in the Woman's Club Building. The entries were made by the students and they were all connected with the school work. Some of the projects were posters, scrapbooks, flower arrangements, bird houses, and moss gardens. All students who won blue ribbons did not have to take the final exam. The students who got second and third places only take half of the exam.

The following people won first places: Betsy McGill, Barbara Pittman, Nell Scott, Nancy Parker, Faye Daniels, Toh Ward, Bobby Martin, Marjorie Blow, Shirley Rollins, Peggy Langly, Mary Alice Rose, Pat Marshall, Ellen Culloty, and Sally Edgerton.

Those who won second places were: Rheta Wood, Ruth Sullivan, Ann McKenzie, Donald Sauls, Gladys Blackman, Nancy Parker, Frank McInnis, Jimmy Smith, Bobby Bryan, Barbara Warren, Margaret Sauls, Emily Warrick, Betty Jean Culbreth, Jimmy Brock, Craven Malpass, Nell Scott.

Those winning third places were Colleen Cooper, Carol Dawson, Jewel Carr, Sara Cobb, Jake Mitchell, Phyllis Banks, Betty Ann Cooke, Betsy Magill, Jimmy Cavanaugh, Rheta Wood, Roger Caudill, Atha Corhin, Me-la Royall, Audrey Vinson, Shirley Wiggins, Betty Grantham, Susan McLamb, Ann Marlow, Tom Slade, Helen Ingram, Jessine Hart, and Louise Wooten.

A marionette show, "Pinochio", was presented to the student body recently
