

Inter-class Tournament Set For Next Few Days

Coming up during the latter part of this month and the first of the next, there is an inter-class basketball tournament in which eyes focus on the girls for a change. It's being sponsored by the junior class under the leadership of Peggy Hawkins and her committee, who ask full cooperation from all the classes in making it a grand success.

The two preparatory games will come on January 23 when the freshmen girls challenge the sophomores, and on the 24th when the junior-senior game will be played. The individual teams haven't been chosen as yet but are in order the early part of next week. Each team must, however, be composed of six first string girls and several substitutes.

February 2 Is Big Date

The big date, February 2, will be the showdown for the first place winner, whose class will receive a silver trophy to be passed on annually. The consolation game will be the first of the two to be played.

The committee has sent a representative to the individual classes, bearing a letter to the president stating the rules for their team and rules for class participation that night. Each class has been asked in the letter to have four boy cheerleaders in the guise of girls, while the class itself should have two original yells and know them. Judging for this part of the contest will be based on the yell itself, actions of the cheerleaders, and class response.

Boy Majorette

During the half each class is asked to submit one boy as majorette and will be judged according to his cleverness in doing the "takeoff" on the majorettes.

Following the two games, there is to be a dance which will be included in the game admission of twenty-five cents. All dancers are urged to be ready to enter their version of the fast dance, makes no difference what it is: Charleston, be bop, shag, all are acceptable.

Class participation can be a lot of fun and is necessary to make it all in all a big night.

After-Game Dances Held In Gymnasium

For the two Friday nights following the home basketball games, dances sponsored by the Parent-Teachers Council were held directly following the game in the William Street gymnasium for the high school students and their guests.

There will be three more dances during the basketball season, as there are three more Friday night home games.

THE STAGE CREW

The Stage Crew, the Stage Crew, The unclaimed Stage Crew.

The actors take all the curtain calls All we take are the knocks and falls.

The hours are long both day and night, By the time we're through we look a fright.

The Coach roars, "Ten minutes for lunch, And if not on time, you're a sorry bunch."

So we grab a "dog" and a cup of "Joe",

Then like slaves, to work we go. The wiring's a maze, a deep mystery,

And no one ever does quite see The work involved, the sweat, and too

The exhaustive efforts of the Stage Crew.

You back into nails, Oh! there goes your pants.

We work like beavers, we work like ants.

The players get the huzzas and rahs, But the Stage Crews only grunts and bahs.

The actors are met with loud applause, The Stage Crew with only "apple-sauce."

Knock, knock, who's there? Kilroy.

Kilroy who? Kill Roy Rogers, I'm Hopalong Cassidy.

Sociology Class Visits City Hall

The second period Sociology class visited the Goldsboro city hall Monday, January 15.

The purpose of this was to sit in on the major's court.

They heard various defendants tried for misdemeanors.

Mayor Scott B. Berkeley presided over the court.

Order Of Arrow Dance Draws 250

Approximately 250 people attended a dance sponsored by the Order of the Arrow which was held during the holidays, December 29, at the Goldsboro Country Club.

Jimmy Cozart and dance band from Rocky Mount played for this annual semi-formal affair, which lasted from 9 to 1.

Engraved invitations were issued to members who distributed them among their high school and college friends.

The club was decorated in fresh greenery and Christmas ornaments.

Refreshments for the dance were handled jointly by the club and the mothers of the members of this Scout-Faternal organization.
