Special Bulletin Boards Installed

Goldsboro high school has received three new bulletin boards. These boards were ordered last year at the cost of ten dollars each, which the S.A. paid. The new boards will be placed at positions in the halls where they can be seen by the largest number of students.

One of the boards will be used to inform seniors of important matters concerning them. This board will be for the use of the seniors only.

These three new boards will be placed in the halls with the two old ones.

There is the greatest satisfaction in doing the things that are most honorable.

- EXCHANGE - Faith Is Theme Of Community Talk

Would you like to be an editor? Being an editor is no picnic. If we print jokes people will say we are silly. If we don't they say we are too serious. If we reprint things from other papers, we are too lazy to write them ourselves. If we don't we are too fond of our own stuff. If we inadvertently fail to report club meetings, it is because we are jealous. If we do we are playing favorites.

And now, likely as not, someone will say we swiped this from some other paper. Well, we did. —Black and Gold, T.C.H.S., Michigan. * * * * *

He: If you'll give me your telephone number, I'll call you up sometime. She: It's in the book. He: Fine, what's your name? She: That's in the book, too. —The Bulldog, Fayetteville.

"Live Thy Faith" was the theme of a program given on World Community Day at the First Baptist church, Friday, November 2.

Special music was presented by the Goldsboro High School Glee Club. Their selection was "Jesus, Holy Spirit."

The speakers were Miss Vann Doorslaer and Karl-Heinz Wittke. Miss Doorslaer, an exchange student from Belgium, is a student at Campbell College. Karl-Heinz is an exchange student from Germany and a student at Goldsboro High School. Also on the program were reports of a Winston-Salem Conference for Negro women. These were given by Obelia Silvers and Ardonia Pettaway.

The presentation of gifts took place and the offerings of money and blankets were sent to Korea. Mrs. Carroll Bryan presided over the meeting.
