

Kiwanians Honor Student Leaders, 3 Boys-Of-Month

George Knight has been elected the Kiwanis Boy-of-the-Month for November because of his outstanding achievements while in high school. The first Kiwanis boy for the school year was Baxter Savage. Eddie Booth was October's Boy-of-the-Month. Each boy was guest at the club's dinner meetings at the Rick's Hotel during the month he was chosen.

George Knight is a popular asset to the senior class. Teachers and students can depend on him when they want to get things done. He was tapped into the National Honor Society last year and he is now its president. He is also circulation manager for The Blackbird and drum major and captain for the band.

Kiwanis Choose Savage First
Baxter Savage was vice-president of the Student Organization last year and is its president this year. He is co-captain of the football team and a member of the BAFOS.

Booth October's Boy
Eddie Booth is Vice-president of the Student Organization and is, therefore, in charge of all assemblies. He is on the varsity football team and a member of the BAFOS.

The Kiwanis Club chooses a boy each month from the senior class on the basis of his achievements during his high school years. This is done as an incentive to senior boys so that they will strive for better leadership and scholarship.

DE Students Sell Blackbird Shirts

Blackbird sweatshirts are the latest thing. Any day now, in room 207, one can buy a beautiful high quality sweatshirt at the low price of $3.25. They are the same kind now being sold at Carolina, Duke, Annapolis, and other colleges for $5.95.

The sweatshirts, sale of which being sponsored by the D. E. Club, are white, with a black and yellow RM emblem on the left side of the front. A zipper closes the convertible collar and the sleeve cuffs and waistband are ribbed.

Washability is guaranteed; the shirt will not shrink or stretch. It is made of highest quality material with a hand-screened emblem guaranteed to last the life of the garment.

Only a limited number was ordered. No other order will be made. Students are urged to get theirs now while their sizes are available.

Services To Begin

Morning prayer meetings will again be conducted since students request these services. The meetings will begin after Christmas vacation under the supervision of Reverend Fleming, of the West Haven Presbyterian Church, and Reverend E. H. Miles, of the North Rocky Mount Church of God.

Student leaders Charlene Sugg and the prayer meeting supervisors decided that Tuesdays and Thursdays be set aside for prayer days. Before the Christmas holidays a call meeting will be held so the students may organize and discuss guest speakers for the year. Posters are to be drawn and announcements made over the inter-communication system to stimulate interest around school.

The morning prayer meetings began last year and were conducted in the old high school cafeteria. The reputation of the meetings spread as far as New Jersey where similar groups were organized in a school there.

Sponsor Directory

For the first time in the history of the high school, a student directory containing the names and telephone numbers of all students, faculty members, and board members, will be published. This Student Directory is sponsored by the Student Organization with Miss Kate Parks Kitchin, advisor.

Elizabeth Vann is head of the student directory committee. Working with her on this committee are Stanley Leggett, Leah Lee, Jimmy Lancaster, and Sally Ann Bartholomew.

An estimated 437 students out of 601 have said they would buy a directory which will cost approximately twenty-five cents.

Miss Kitchin hopes that the directory will be released for the students to buy before Christmas. As yet, however, there is no definite date set for the directory to come out.

FHA Has Initiation

Twenty-one new members were initiated into the Future Homemakers of America during a party held in the home economics department November 5. Each old member took three new members and made them dress "tacky" and perform at intervals. Some dressed like babies and sang and some wore pajamas and sang or told jokes.

The home economics department was decorated with a large table on which was set a big vase of yellow chrysanthemums over a hand-stitched tablecloth. Punch, cookies, and sandwiches were served.

Two of the FHA's projects for this year are (1) to equip the home nursing unit with the supplies necessary for the course and (2) to collect coupons from Kellogg's products to buy a complete setting of silverware for six.

Miss Josephine Grant is adviser of the FHA Club.

Erwin And Peggy Sound Off About What's New On Campus

Ring----
"Hello."

"Hello, Peggy, this is Erwin. What did we have for American history homework? By the way, did you know that Mary Jo Mears, Joan Mixon, Carolyn Gardner, Barbara Ann Moore, and Betty Sue Cash went to State for the homecoming game? Leah Lee went to the East Carolina homecoming."

"Yes, and I heard that Leah Lee, Nancy Newbold, Betty Ivey, Gene Williams and Lynn Hatchett went to Wake Forest Saturday."

"Did you know that a gang of boys went to the Carolina-Tennessee game, which was the Carolina homecoming?"

"No, who were they?"

"They were Julian Aldridge, Fred Reuben, Rooney Malcolm, Charles Landen, Charles Sanders, Foy Bradshaw, Buck Morgan and John Gorham. The lucky things! Wouldn't it be fun to spend a day at college?"

"Speaking of spending a day at college and luck, Carolyn Rabil and Kay Sanders were invited to the Shoe and Slipper Ball at Duke, and Elizabeth Vann visited the Naval Academy recently. Weren't they lucky?"

"Last week I saw Stanley Still, Dave Barnes, Smokey Lancaster, Bill Toler, Billy Proctor and Theo Pitt on the way to Junior high school. I guess they were going to practice basketball."

"Probably, and aren't Gene Moss, Donald Stallings, Sammy Muzon, Bunny Bell, Harold Gilbert and James Manning going to play?"

"Yes, I think so and Bruce

Ethridge told me that he and Clem Edwards, Craig Horne, Addison Wimberly, Charles Landen, Ray Harper, Fred Reuben, John O'Donnell and Carter Hedrick are going out for it, too."

"Last weekend a group of boys from Scout Troop 7—Charles Daughtridge, George Daughtridge, Rooney Malcolm, Bobby Savage, to be definite—camped out at Dismal Swamp. A Photographer from Boy's Life magazine accompanied them to take pictures. The pictures will be used to illustrate a feature story in the magazine about the boys."

"Weren't you jealous of Sis Livengood's dancing with that cute Gene Lilly in Scotland Neck. She got an A for dancing with him from Miss Craighill, but Becky Odom got a better prize. He came to see her last Tuesday but she was not at home. Charles Bateman got an A for dancing with one of the girls there. Kenneth Killebrew thought he deserved a C for trying. Charles beat him to it. I'll bet that is the first time anybody ever got an A in French for dancing."

"Now tell me what our homework was in American history."

"I think it was on Truman's talk."

"I've got to go on now, but I'll see you tomorrow."

"All right, goodbye."
