

Pictorial Highlights Of Fayetteville Trip

Fun, laughter and more fun were had by the students who went by chartered train to the Fayetteville football game, October 8.

After the train started and people settled down in their places, cheers rolled through the cars. Cheerleaders didn't let the noise cease for long at a time and even a train horn was found to add to the confusion.

Almost a continuous stream of students was headed toward the concession car, while others nibbled on their packed lunches.

Students piled off the train in Fayetteville and walked to the stadium a little before seven o'clock.

During the half the band played "Our Director", forming a HI; "Let Me Call You Sweetheart," forming a heart; and "Hail To Thearsity", and maneuvering into a football.

After the game the students went back to the train feeling proud of the way the Blackbird fought even though they had lost.

Left-over food was finished and songs poured out with a uke accompaniment. Soon the music drifted through the train. In one of the cars people were packed so tightly that anyone passing had to literally crawl under some legs.

Students played tricks on each other, but all in all every one seemed to have had a wonderful time on the trip.

Teachers Meet Students Play

There will be a holiday for all pupils when the teachers attend the North Eastern District meeting of the North Carolina Education Association in Greenville, November 5.

Fourteen Musettes are to act as pages for the event.

Promotes School Spirit

Good Sports Initiate 8 Pledges

Eight girls have already experienced their first meeting of the Good Sports Club, at which time they became active pledges by taking the oath and receiving their colors.

Promoting school spirit is the major aim of the Good Sports organization. To help do this posters encouraging school spirit have been displayed.

Ribbons are sold for each game by the members of the club and the goal posts are decorated for each home game by the pledges.

Those who received bids to this organization were Mariah Parker,

Joyce Harris, Faye Batts, Jane Hatchett, Doris Cooper, Nancy Newbold, Joy Ann Hayes and Peggy Whitehurst. These eight people will be pledges all of first semester.

Officers of the club are Jeanette McIntyre, president; Kay Williford, vice president; Lee Ann Brown, secretary; and Judy Brewer, treasurer. Mrs. Landis is adviser to the club.

Judy Brewer entertained the club for its first meeting of the year. This meeting was held on a Tuesday night, but during the remainder of the year the club will meet every other Monday night.

What Do You Want?

"What do you want out of life?" asked Dr. Julian S. Lake of his audience, the juniors and seniors, as he spoke to them about what they could get out of life if they were only willing to pay for what they got, according to its value.

Dr. Lake said that the good things in life must be paid for now and the bad things later on. He said that anything in life could be successful if people would pay the price for it.

Dr. Lake stressed a successful marriage and gave examples of two couples; one whose marriage had failed because the couple was not willing to pay the price and one whose marriage had succeeded because the couple had paid the price.

Services were conducted at the First Presbyterian Church by Dr. Lake who spoke at school on Wednesday, September 29.

Dance Completes Homecoming Day

Traditional dance and parade, sponsored by the Service Club and Student Organization made a full day for the homecoming activities when the game with Wilmington was played October 1.

In the parade gaily decorated cars and floats represented club organizations and various home-rooms.

Bill Kincheloe, Bobby Savage, Skippy Stone, Faye Batts and Mimi Brewer rode on the Hi-Noc-Ar float which won the first prize of five dollars. Honorable mention was given to the dramatics car and the BLACKBIRD car.

That night after the football game students from both schools were welcomed at the junior high school gym, where the homecoming dance takes place each year. Here everyone enjoyed dancing, and meeting and talking with old friends.
