Ma's, Pa's, Advisers

Thanks Go to Faculty

throne has been,

Thanks first to our principal, members, of course! Mr. C. M. Edson, for his ever ready guidance she has given us.

been ma's, pa's and advisers in a selves. place which, in reality, has been a second home.

and Mr. A. Malloy McGregor have given time and effort to make our high school years successful At this time of year, seniors seem ones. They have advised and done to be the ones receiving all the everything in their power to help praise, honor, and glory, but we put over projects. When the proknow who the power behind the jects were successful, to whom was the credit given? - The class

We do not mean to overlook our help and to Miss Eleanor Pearsall subject teachers, for they are the for all her aid in the library, es- one to whom we are primarily repecially at senior theme time. To sponsible. We consider ourselves Miss Kate Parks Kitchin we extend lucky. Anyone can teach what's in a hand of thanks for the expert a book, but not all schools have teachers who encourage individuals Homeroom teachers who have to do, to act, and to think for them-

In later years, when members of These teachers - Mrs. Hiram our class are successful and fam-Cuthrell, Mrs. T. D. Young, Miss ous, you teachers will certainly Josephine Grant, Miss Dorothy have the right to say, "I helped Craigbill, Mrs. Beitie Sue Hunt, make that person what he is today."

Spring Fever Hits, Affects Everybody

Spring fever has hit Rocky Mount Senior High students like a bomb, but they aren't the only ones affected by this disease.

Coming out of The Blackbird office, I spied Mrs. T. D. Young, adviser, slumped over her desk checking copy in a lazy manner. (It could be fatigue, though).

Rambling down the hall, I peeked in the Span'sh room and saw Mrs. Hiram Cuthrell, looking as if she were ready for a siesta.

As fifth period arrived, I noticed Mrs. Janice Williams explaining algebraic logarithms in 208, Teaching seems to have slowed down from a fast jitterbug to a slow

Now is the time for Mr. Haro'd Parry to get out his music sheet "Barefoot", as this seems to be The Senier Class running through everyone's mind. Evidence of this > was Mary Lewis barefoot!

Wonder why students jump at the idea of being "sent to the office"? Well, that's one place that has air conditioning!

Juniors in Mrs. Gladys Robbins's English class have been handing in a lot of themes on Mondays about their weekend experiences at various beaches. Maybe the next these beaches they will see Mrs. Robins soaking up the sun. Some have already "soaked." Among those are our practice teachers -McKnight and Miss Helen White. caps and gowns, practiced with practice.

Everybody's Got The Jitters

Langley, at the Seniors Receive Caps, Gowns And Practice Commencement

"I got it! - at last I got it!" Mr. James Roberts and the Senior caps and started the long prac- al. tice for baccalaureate and commencement exercises.

Last Monday all seniors met with Mr. C. M. Edson in the auditorium to begin practicing marching for baccalaureate exercises. Each students was arranged in alphabetical ditorium at 11:00, dressed in robe order and practiced every morning and cap to practice for graduation time someone ventures to one of from 8:30 until 9:00, sometimes running over into first period proximately two hours. (much to the joy of some seniors).

Dress Rehearsal, Friday

'58 Graduates List School Plans

shouted seniors when they received High School band, which played their commencement robes and for the processional and recession-

> Sunday was the big day for the beginning of graduation activities with the baccalaureate sermon.

This Week, More Practice!

This week, which is regular exam week, seniors will meet in the auexercises. Practices will last ap-

If any senior has to take an exam during regular exam week, Friday the group, dressed in he will do so and then report to

EDITION

'58 in Review

Look Shows Leadership

Following is a review of an im-homores and seniors in this camaginary play of the class history of Senior High's '58 graduates, among whom were many of outstanding leadership qualities. Act I

Setting: Long, empty halls of Rocky Mount Senior High School 1955-1957

Characters: Green shivering sophomores Act II

Scene I - Home of local residents

Scene II - Gymnasium Characters: A class of hard working eager, fun-loving youngsters.

Setting: Most anywhere but the classroom

Characters: A greatly decreased number of boys and girls who are suffering from mixed feelings of joy and regret.

Confused at Arrival

The cast of Act I. a group of treasurer. confused young people, strayed along the mystery laden halls of were the Junior-Senior at which RMSHS i nthe fall of 1955, but it the actors did not take these boys and girls guests, Senior Day, baccalaureate, long to clear the confusion and solve the mysteries before them.

Under the guidance of teachers and the capable leadership of Sandra Melton, president; Molly Arnold, vice president; Pat Bell, secretary; and David Barney (now living in Maryland), treasurer; they gained a firm foothold and struggled through their first year.

were Blount Taylor, president; Pat Spruill, secretary; Vickie Taylor, the Senior Breakfast at the Rio treasurer. The curtain rose on the Restaurant this morning as folfirst scene with a group of boys lows: Larry Medford, president; and girls earnestly soliciting ma- Sandra Melton, vice president; gazine subscriptions among the Judy Brown, secretary; and Celia Gardner, Sonya Hooker, Bobby townspeople. The class led the sop- Brake, treasurer.

In the second scene preparations were underway for the long-awaited Junior-Senior dance. The gym Miss Barbara Brown, Miss Frances with its weird murals, spiders, weeping willow trees, and ceiling of stars was a product achieved by hard labor.

Leading in the cast this time were Blount Taylor, president: Celia Brake, chairman of the decorations committee and secretary. and their able understudies (raig Daughtridge, vice president, and and Brenda Burnette, treasurer.

Act III Climaxes Years

Act III brought together all the these actors experienced throughout the play. Larry Medford was cast in the leading role in scene I and Mitchell McKinney plays vice president, Peggy Lamm, secre-Bell, secretary; and Sonya Hooker, ner, Glen Lee Hill, Henry Hinson, Eason, Wayne Knowles, and Gus Outstanding events of this act were this time the and graduation.

ceive their coveted diplomas on May 30, 1958.

Officers Revealed In Act II the leading characters At Class Breakfast

Permanent officers for the sen-Thurman, vice pres'dent; Anna ior class were announced during

With the closing of school, this age and Alton Oakley. year's graduates will represent Rocky Mount well in many colleges der, Molly Arnold, Pat Bell, Jane fun and work, the joy and sorrow and other types of schools next Bradley, Gwen Currin, Craig Daufall both in and out of the state:

> Below is a list of "who's going bara Southerland. where."

tary; and Al Wordsworth; Pat Batts, John Brown, Freddie Gard-Tommy Hobbs, Cecil Marks, Ronald Lancaster. Roberson, John Sturgess, Blount Taylor, Eddie Wilhalf and Al Wordsworth.

University of N. C. - Russell The curtain will ring down on Clack, Allen Cronenberg, Jerry 190 actors (seniors) as they re- Daley, Bill Dunn, David Harper, Dan Robbins, George Staton, Larry and Kay Toler. Ward and Bill Winters.

> Peace College - Sylvia Barrett, Celia Brake, Linda Carole Kelly, Linda Gail Pridgen, Peggy Singletary, Julia Sutton and Jean Wat-

> East Carolina - Caroline Campbell, Lillian Currie, Bobby Daniel, Margaret Sutton Deans, Jimmy Jackson, Jimmy Thorpe, Kay Turn-

Womans College-Betsy Alexanghtridge, Connie Griffin and Bar-

Louisburg - Bobby Fisher, North Carolina State - Willard Roger Sellers and Louise Walts. Chowan - Keith Abbott, Gene

> Campbell - John Baggett, Andy neth Tarlton. Morgan, George Putnam, Thurman and Buzzy Tilley.

Wake Forest - Dorsey Daniel, Pat Lowder and Stanley Vaughan. Marjorie Webster — Gloria Gold

R. P. I. - Ernestine Barnes, Bill Colson, Puddie Gold, Jimmy Land. Waters and Chipps Wood.

nessee - Ray White.

University of Miami - Carol Wil-

Merdith - Patsy Daughtridge and Carol Heck.

St. Mary's - Vickie Taylor.

Duke University - Judy Brown. | Marriage - Jeannie Dixon.

Lees McRae - Barbara Brown. Mars Hill - Lee Bulluck and Jeff Griffin.

High Point College - Haywood Edmundson.

Salem - Carol Treatt.

Davidson -- Bob Moore.

West Point - Sammy Meyer. Rex Hospital - Nancy Harlow

and Eugenia Norment. N. C. Baptist Hospital -- Ken-

Carolina School of Commerce

Rena Vasilakou.

Asbury College, Wilmore, Kentucky - Milon Barnes.

Belmont Abbey - Frank Brake. Atlantic Christian - Joyce Burgess, Iris Edwards and Jimmy

School of Nursing; Medical Col-Lipscomb College, Nashville Ten-lege of Virginia - Sandra Melton. Those not going to college but have other plans are as follows:

Navy - Charles Edwards and Don Lancaster.

Coast Guard - Tommy Hedgepath.