Girls Pick a Fellow for Party

Girls now's your chance, grab your favorite fellow and take him to the Teenage Club for the turnabout Valentine's dance, February 14, from 8:30 to 11:30, sponsored by the Youth Council.

If possible, the girls are to pick up the boys at their homes, escort them to the dance and see that they enjoy themselves.

This dance was voted on by the council and the following were chosen to head the committees: Bootsie Oldham, refreshments; Cleve Cherry, decorations; Jimmy Gilbert, entertainment.

The Four Keys, a new local quartet will provide the entertainment. The quartet is made up of Dickie Moore, Jimmy Mooring, Roland Parker, and Chuck Short. Selections planned are, "Wedding Bells," and "Love, Love, Love." Ken Watson will accompany the group on the drums.

A motion that the boys wear skirts and the girls wear trousers was voted down by the Council because of the inconvenience. Informal dress was decided upon.

Adult sponsors of the dance are Mrs. J. A. Churchill, supervisor of the Teenage Club, and Mrs. Fairy Bandy of the City Recreation Department.

"What Is a Teacher" was the subject which the "Little Reds" of Trippelphian High School in Wheeling, West Virginia were asked to write about. There were many pleasing and truthful descriptions of their teachers. This is a project RM Blackbirds should try for. I am sure the results would be equally pleasing.

The "Little Reds" also participated in a contest with their local radio station to find a student of "Triad" who wanted to be a disc jockey. When this person was found he was given a program of his own on which he plays records, has his own commercials and newcasts. RM Blackbirds have even gone a step further than this because we now have a television program of our own produced by the Radio and TV Club.

Recently the students of Chapel Hill High School wrote an article about Kay Kyser, who is now living and working in Chapel Hill. Wonder how many RMSHS students knew he was a native of Rocky Mount and attended the Rocky Mount School.

Srs. Elect Leaders

The last officers for the final semester of the class of '59 were recently elected, in a hard run-off election.

Eight candidates, one petitioned candidate and their campaign managers did their best to make their final campaign a one for students to remember for a long time.

The candidates and results are listed as follows: David Williams won out over Bill Stancil for president; 'Honey' McIntyre defeated Nancy Carr for vice-president; Ann McCarver got more votes than Vicki Odom and Pat Walsh for secretary; and John Hines was victorious over Chuck Short for treasurer.

Congratulations to all the candidates, their campaign managers and everybody else who helped in making this last campaign for the class of '59 a successful one.
