FOUR NEW TEACHERS COME TO SENIOR HIGH THIS YEAR

Coach Dudley Whitley, Mr. Jim Baggett, Miss Linda Lunsford, and Mrs. Kay Utley are the four new teachers at Rocky Mount Senior High School.

Coach Whitley, a former student of RMSH, after graduating from State College, began coaching at R. M. Wilson Junior High School before coming here.

Miss Lunsford, a former resident of Roxsboro, was graduated from Duke University and is teaching in the chemistry department.

Mr. Baggett, originally from Palm Harbor, Florida, attended Chipola Jr. College for two years and the University of Florida for one year. He then spent two years in West Germany with the Air Force. After leaving the service, he returned to the University of Tampa. After graduation, in June, 1962, he attended Duke University graduate school. He will receive his M.A. from Duke in the summer of 1963.

Mrs. Utley, a former Wilson resident, was graduated from Atlantic Christian College. This year, she will teach physical education for girls, she will have one study hall, and she will teach a practical math class.

Seniors Assigned New Homeroom

Due to overcrowded conditions in the senior homerooms, a new homeroom was created with Mrs. Sue Hayworth as the teacher.

The homeroom will be composed of a few students from each homeroom and one new student from out of state.

Coach Henry Trevathan, upon being promoted to assistant football coach, had to give up his senior homeroom. Mrs. Thelma Lundy will take over his homeroom for this year.

TWO SCHOOL OFFICERS NAMED ROTARY BOY, GIRL OF MONTH

Principal C. M. Edson announced that David Williams and Jan McCrary are the new Rotary Boy and Girl of the month.

Some of David's accomplishments include being elected tends the Episcopal Church in Lattleboro where he serves as a Sunday School teacher and an Alcolite. David rounds out his activities by running the 880 in track.

The honor of Rotary Girl goes to a very deserving and intelligent girl whom we know as Jan McCrary.

Her qualifications include homeroom offices, "B" honor roll, and program committee for the Jr. Sr. She has been a Student Legislature Representative and is presently serving as Secretary of the Student Organization.

Jan has also done much in spreading the good will of Senior High by representing us at the Jr. Science Symposium, Eastern District Student Council, and the Student Council Congress.

David Williams is this month's Rotary Boy.

Vice-President of the Student Organization this year and Vice-President of the Junior Class last year. He also served as President of and Treasurer of his homeroom and President of the Dramatics Club.

This year David finds time to work on the Hi-Noc-Ar Staff, social committee, and youth council. David was selected to be the host to our foreign exchange student, Ernesto Arroyo, from Costa Rica. In scouts, he is the recipient of the Eagle Badge and the God and Country Award. David regularly at-
