

Teresa Vivo and Kenneth Ricks receives Human Relations Honor for the month of May.

Vivo And Ricks Receive Human Relations Honor

For May the Human Relations Committee would like to recognize Teresa Vivo and Kenneth Ricks as their couple for the month.

Teresa, a warm-hearted sophomore, has been noticed by many for her attitude towards others. (Evidently, because she wouldn't have been chosen as the girl of the month!) Well, getting back to the subject at hand, she was a member of the J.V. Varsity Cheering Squad. I'm sure that her warm smile helped to give confidence to a great number of young men on the J. V. teams. Teresa is very fond of swimming and enjoys going to the beach. When told she had been chosen as the girl of the month, she stated, "You picked me at the weirdest moment. It is an honor that I never thought that I would have received." Good luck, Teresa, for whatever the future has in store for you.

Have you seen the young man with the big Afro yet. Well, he's none other than Kenneth Ricks, Human Relations Boy for the Month. "Spoke", as he is usually called, has a number of past-times. One of which is basketball. He frequently makes the scene at the Community Center Gym. He attends the Hillsdale Baptist Church and is treasurer of the choir. He frankly admits that he isn't all that good at singing. Kenneth is also a member in good standings with the Boys Club of Rocky Mount. Although only a sophomore, he already plans to attend a business college. He has yet to decide which one.

Proud Graduating Class Of '71 . . .

Graduation is a magic word to many seniors. The mighty class of '71 will be assembled together in one place for the last time on the night of June 4th, final commencement. Many of them will be wondering what is going to be the future of fellow classmates--what college or technical school they will be attending. The following two pages are filled with the statistics of each senior's fickle finger of Fate. In which direction does it point?

SINGLE COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

To Wake Forest (skipping happily along) will be James Hargrove, Becky Sheridan and Taylor Beattie. Enjoying the academic life at Davidson will be Andy Dorr. Leamond Suggs and Diane Cordell will make the scene at Fayetteville State University, while Ruby Wiggins and Fabian Chase go to Elizabeth City State. Jeff Land has decided on Brevard, and David Cordts has chosen the University of the South in Sewanee, Tennessee. Several seniors have their eyes on Meredith. They are Phyllis Braswell, Pam Davenport, Anna Tarry, Susan Cobb, Patty Whisnant and Patty McBride. Beverly Carapelle will go north to Cedarville College in Cedarville, Ohio. Mary Edge and Dottie Hanon both plan to attend St. Augustine. Ann Pitt is sticking to Salem College while Margo Wiley, Gay Wilgus and Robin Bourne are sticking to Hollins, just outside of Roanoke, Va. Just off the cuff here is Bobbi Wheeler to Elon; John Vaughan to Catawba; Frank Sherwood to Lenore Rhyne; Sherlock Bynum and Vickie Person to Livingston; Phillip Newton to Lee; Debra Brown to Howard University; and Glendale Moore to Fisk University. Sticking to the All-American City atmosphere will be Jane Gravely, Julian Griffin, Dixie Wilde, Richard Bryant and Mike Long at N. C. Wesleyan College. Phillip Lea has his eye on Presbyterian College, and Mary Clonts has hers on Sacred Heart. Girls' school goers include: Grey Burgess and Ann Williamson to Averett; Ennis Hicks to Stratford; Florence Jeffress, Amanda Brantley and Susan Dill to St. Mary's; and Mary Bryan Pitt, Phyllis Bryan, Beth Steadman, Susan Pittman, Paula Weatherford and Robin Bradley to Peace.

CHOWAN

Chowan has captured the hearts of several seniors, Gregg White, Doug Braswell, Ruthie Grayson, Donna Davidson, Mike McGee, Louis Barnes, Marvin English, Jessica Smith, Freida Smith, Sheila Pitt and Jane Whitley will walk along Chowan's ivy-covered halls.

SINGLE COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

Robert Worrell will set things spinning at Brigham Young University. Mt. Olive College hits the ringer for Pamela Bone, Steve Bulluck, and Matthew Edge. To Atlantic Christian are Linda Howell and Carol Council. Choosing North Carolina Central were Catherine Bullock, Ronna Hill, Maurice Sumner, Margaret Moore, Florine Pittman, Hildegard Watson, Jackie Shaw and Jureta Ruffin. Kathy Dudley goes to Bishop College in Dallas, Texas. Branches of Carolina grab Tommy Mayo to U.N.C. at Wilmington and Western Carolina grabs Julian Pegram. Let's travel to Buies' Creek. All right? "All right!" cry Walter Green, Anne Best, Robbie Wooten, and Mike Berry (Campbell College fans).

COMMUNITY COLLEGES

Hope White, Donald Coley, and David Daughtridge will hit the books at Wayne Community College. Gerald Batts will groove at Kinston Community.

ECU

ECU is the most popular college among the Class of '71. Thirty six (36) seniors will flood the campus next fall. These include: Linda Langley, David Hodges, Donna Hinton, Marie Joye, Cindy Sutton, Pam Hemenway, Rod Hoell, Edwin Williamson, Henry Edmondson, Perri Morgan, Yvonne Bullock, Jodie Landis, Catherine Collins, Meredith Jones, Lynn Safy, Debbie Hunt, Vikki Barnes, Jimmie Hobbs, George Harris, Wini-Jo Bradley, Ginny Goff, Llewellyn Worsley, Sterling Saunders, Alice Buffalo, Randy Hall, Lee Farmer, Fred Scott, Stephen Coggins, Joel Byrne, Richard Jones, Mike Ruffin, Karen Densen, Donna Cederberg, Jody Fountain, and Freda Parrish.

APPALACHIAN STATE AND LOUISBURG

Up in the mountains at Appalachian State next year are Eric Lanier, Andre Sparrow and Millie Shields. Grooving at Louisburg will be Joy Bass, Woody Riddick, Mel Daughtridge, Sandra Braden, Linda Drake, Angie Redfrow, Carl Worsley, H. C. Shearin, Roland Valentine, Larry Howell and Marian Davis.
