

Steve Braswell Chosen For January Kiwanis Boy Honor

Steve Braswell, an outstanding senior at RMSH, has recently been chosen as the Kiwanis Boy for January.

Over the past three years at RMSH, Steve has been very active in student government. Some of his activities in his sophomore year include SRA representative, formation of the Student Advisory Committee, a member of the Assembly Committee, a marshal, Vice President of the North Carolina Association of Student Councils, and a guest speaker and discussion leader for each of the district NCASC conventions.

In his junior year, Steve was Vice President of RMSH, chairman of the entertainment committee for the Junior-Senior, a member of the steering committee for reaccreditation, a member of the Service Club and a speaker for the Easter Sunrise Service.

This year, Steve is 1st semester president of the Service Club, a patron of Wesleyan College and treasurer of the Eastern District of North Carolina Association of Student Councils.

Steve would like to attend the North Carolina School of the Arts and study drama when he graduates from RMSH. He plans to go into professional drama or education after graduation.

When asked his reaction to this honor, Steve stated he was still questioning if they were sure.

Edsonians Plan Trip

Rocky Mount Senior High School Edsonians have been chosen as one of five groups out of ten states to perform at the Southeastern Theatre Conference meeting in Cincinnati, Ohio February 27 through March 2. The conference is composed of ten states: Florida, Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina, Alabama, Mississippi, Tennessee, West Virginia, Kentucky and Virginia. From these ten states the conference chose what they consider five of the finest drama departments in high schools in the combined states.

North Carolina is represented by two groups at this showcase festival, with Mount Airy as one since they have a very strong drama department. The other three groups are from Mississippi, Tennessee, and West Virginia.

Mr. Rawls feels that the invitation to the festival was extended as a result of the success that the local drama students had with their improvised fables at the state festival two years ago. As a result the students are reviving the fables and are carrying them to the festival in Cincinnati.

Students making the trip include: Tony Brabham, Tom Bennett, Ken Batcheler, Gary Carter, Margaret Griffin, Amy Maxwell, Paula Murrill, Beverly Powell, Stuart Rodwell and Stuart Vaughan. Mr. Rawls and two chaperones will accompany the students to Cincinnati.

RMSH Students Visited By Worrisome Intruder

Juniors and Seniors beware, that old Tasmanian Devil is back! Sophomores, -- introducing the most hideous creature of all, the Exam. This particular beast appears on our campus twice a year.

Our midterm is the delightful time for the first of these to visit. He whizzes in causing lack of sleep, loss of appetite and numerous cases of worry. Of course, he leaves after his dirty deal is over. Just in time for school to end, the second arrives to renew the forgotten plague of the first one.

Now, let us investigate the ones who bring this devil upon us. The mad-scientists, under the camouflage name of teachers, spend long, laborious hours designing and forming these monsters. After that, they are multiplied in a copy machine and stacked, ready for attack.

It takes no time for the beasts to take all of us captive.

Only through extensive meditation and study can we pass their tortures. Finally the prison door is open, and we joyously greet our freedom. Later, more of the effects of their disastrous work are seen.

So now Sophomores, you know the terror placed on us twice each year. Start preparing yourselves now for the Exams to come.
