

Above are the students who attended the District Drama Festival. (Photo by Killebrew)

Students Win Awards At District Festival

Drama students from Rocky Mount Senior High School attended the District Drama Festival of the Carolina Dramatics Association held at North Carolina State University in Raleigh on March 23. These students returned with nine awards out of the eleven awards given. Eight of these were top awards.

The students had three entries in play production. Two of these plays were distinguished ratings, which are the highest awards. The third play was rated as excellent, which is just below top.

Completing the nine awards received were five top awards in acting and the last in theatre arts for costuming. Those receiving acting awards were Margaret Griffin, Terrie Leggette, Ken Batchelor, and Gary Carter. Ken Batchelor won two awards, one for each of the plays he performed in.

Others appearing in the plays included Judy Boddie, Celeste Green, Ann Daughridge, Marcie and Mindy Kamins, Amy Maxwell, Dennis Nicholson, Paula Murrill, Stuart Rodwell, and Stuart Vaughan.

Also, from February 23 to March 3 nine students plus Mr. Rawls attended a festival in Cincinnati. These students were: Stuart Rodwell, Stuart Vaughan, Amy Maxwell, Paula Murrill, Tom Bennett, Ken Batchelor, Beverly Powell, Margaret Griffin and Gary Carter. They returned with one award which was given to Gary Carter for best actor. Their productions were titled as Fables for Fun.

March 28-29 Teacher's Work-days
 April 12-19 Easter vacation
 May 16 Registration deadline for the June 22 SAT contest, while Libby Turner received 1st place in public speaking. Carolyn Gant was elected district Secretary, and Evangeline Simmons District President.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at the end of third period.

the next SRA meeting.

The investigation on disciplinary procedures was reported to have little interest from the students who originally proposed the motion.

Representatives without constitutions were asked to obtain copies from the guidance center as a knowledge of the constitution is necessary for constitutional revisions.

Foreta Grant, Sr. class Pres., announced that seniors would be buying caps and gown at the price of $5.

A motion was made by Tricia Edwards to request Coach Lundy to take appropriate action for retiring Phil Ford's jersey number 20. The motion was seconded by Reginald Sumner and carried by voice vote.

The Edsonians were congratulated for receiving nine awards at the CDA district session held in Raleigh on March 23.

The D. E. department was congratulated for its accomplishments. At a district meeting, Louanda Dickens won 2nd place in a display

Much Business Conducted In Recent Meeting of SRA

The SRA met on Tuesday, February 26, during third period. Bill Roebuck, President, called the meeting to order and Tricia Edwards gave the devotion. Paula Murrill read the minutes of the previous meeting and called the roll. Then she read a newsletter from the NCASC urging interested students to apply for the NASC conference and explaining that the state theme for 1974-75 would be: "Student Council Force or Farce?"

Bill reported on a request made to Mr. Newbern concerning improperly set clocks. He said that 30 clocks needed to be repaired or replaced and reported that plans were being made to correct the situation.

Michael Alston began committee reports saying that the marquis would have to be refaced and that the approximate cost would be $120. He said he would obtain estimates from other sign companies and the shop department before taking any action.

Tricia Edwards reported that students interested in buying bus tickets to the 4A Basketball playoffs should contact her or Caroline Lineberry and be prepared to pay $5.50. She urged students to buy game tickets ahead of time here in Rocky Mount. Next she read the rules for the School Alma Mater contest which the School Spirit Committee is sponsoring.

Ronnie Farmer reported that the Fire Drill on Feb. 12 had been slow but that students had needed the warning at the blocked exit.

Nancy Davis reported that she had received no response to her resthome visitation project, but that her committee members would continue with the work. She announced that the EDN-CASE convention would be held here at RMSH on March 29, and said that we would be allowed three official and two unofficial delegates. Laura Davenport is to be in charge of any necessary overnight housing for delegates.

Bryant Aldridge requested students to keep hall traffic to the right of the halls, and to not stop in the middle of the hall for conversation.

Bill opened New Business with a report on the AFS program. He stated that three of four families had been interviewed. Next he asked the SRA to accept Beverly Brinn as student AFS chairman with the recommendation that she be re-appointed by next years President. A corresponding motion made by Nancy Davis and seconded by Jeff Collins was carried by a voice vote. Bill said that a money making project for the AFS program would be designed in such a way that all students would be able to join in the activity.

The Honor Roll System committee was to meet on the afternoon of the meeting day, and a report was promised for a program geared to train youth in preparation for becoming future church leaders and for the evangelization of the lost.

Mr. Ribs Restaurant

PEDDLERS VILLAGE

Pro-teens

Romans 10:9

Peoples Missionary Baptist Church

If we meet and you forget me, you have lost nothing; but if you meet JESUS CHRIST and forget Him you have lost everything.

WESTWOOD LUMBER CO.

ACROSS FROM SENIOR HIGH

The Campus Room

DOWNTOWN
 ROCKY MOUNT

HANG IN THERE!

SHOP THE COOL ONE!

MONTGOMERY WARD

Tarrytown Mall