Bill Mebane Chosen March Kiwanis Boy

Bill Mebane, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Mebane, of 1404 West Haven Blvd. is the Kiwanis Boy for March.

Bill is involved in many activities, both in and out of school. His school activities include the National Honor Society, Phalanx Club, second semester Junior Class Treasurer, and attendance at the Honors Seminars in the Sciences at E.C.U. Activities in which he participates outside of school include the Episcopal Young Churchmen (EYC). Golf and basketball are his favorite hobbies.

When questioned about his feelings on being selected Kiwanis Boy for March, Bill replied, "It is a great honor being chosen to represent the Kiwanis Club during March." The Gryphon staff congratulates Bill, upon his selection as March's Kiwanis Boy.

Drama Award

Several Drama students attended a contest in Cincinnati, Ohio, from February 27 to March 3. Gary Carter, A RMSH sophomore, received the Best Actor award. The GRYPHON staff congratulates Gary for winning this award.

Health Occupations

In the last issue of the GRYPHON concerning the list of girls in Health Occupations, two names were left out. These were Reece Lewis and Flora High. The list was one of all the girls taking Health Occupations II.

Teen Board

The Belk Tyler Teen Board held their annual spring fashion show March 23, 1974, on the second floor of Belk-Tyler's Department Store. Some of the latest and most fashionable styles for warm weather were displayed.

French Club

Mrs. Anne Williamson is pleased to announce the induction of a new member into the Vingt-Sur-Vingt Club. This student is Susan Mooring, a junior taking French 3. Susan has also earned a star in the club. To earn a star, a student already in the club must make another perfect score on a Vingt-Sur-Vingt test. The GRYPHON staff would like to congratulate Susan.

Social Club Activities

The Elegants Club shoed their school spirit by chartering a bus to Friday night's game in Greensboro on March 1.

The Charmettes gave a talent show March 2 at the OIC auditorium. The show began at 8 o'clock.

The Betheltes Society collected for the Heart Fund on Heart Sunday.

The T.A.C. Club collected for the Heart Fund. They will also take an active part in the "Smile Project" which is a nationwide effort to raise money for Muscular Dystrophy.

Correction

In the last issue of the GRYPHON, credit for the Black History Week bulletin boards was given to the Publicity Committee. The bulletin boards were actually done by the Bulletin Board Committee of the Black History Week Committee. The members of the Bulletin Board Committee were Gail Phillips, chairman, Robin Shaw, and Phyllis Goffney.

Timely Suggestions For Gas Shortage

It has now become a common occurrence for long lines to form at gas stations. The Gryphon Staff has some timely suggestions on how to pass away time while you wait in line:

1. Do your homework (The teachers would appreciate this)
2. Listen to the radio
3. Read a book
4. Twiddle your thumbs
5. Get out of your car and try to direct traffic
6. Eat your lunch
7. Listen to the birds sing

8. Make up phases to describe the energy crisis
9. Read a Superman comic book
10. Write a book about your life

11. Read the newspaper
12. Bring along your canary to talk to
13. Sing along with the radio

14. Throw paper at the other cars in the line
15. Think of ways to sneak into the line

16. Pretend you are the Red Baron and fire at the other cars

17. Get out of your car, start at the beginning of the line and count the cars in the line

18. Shout insults at the other drivers
19. Make paper airplanes
20. Go to sleep
21. Play solitaire
22. Carry your golf clubs and practice your swing
23. Give up and go home

We hope that these suggestions will prove to be of some value to you and that you will benefit from following them.
