Two RMSH Students Attend Governor's School In W.S.

Phyllis Goffney and Susan Mooring were chosen to attend Salem College at Winston Salem, North Carolina this summer. The main purpose of the program is to further education and have a good time doing it!

Susan and Phyllis were chosen from four hundred other students from all over North Carolina. Special requirements were necessary to enter into Governor's School such as a "B" average or better. The students had to be one of the top ten in their class.

Every day for six weeks classes were held Monday through Saturday. Such courses as Psychology, Epitomology and Foreign Languages were offered.

Classes were held every day Monday through Saturday. Many of the latest problems and theories in the various fields of the Arts and Sciences are studied.

Phyllis and Susan said they particularly liked their French classes. It's not for a grade or a credit that these students are there but for the fun of learning.

Projects In Store For Modern Dance Group

Every Monday and Wednesday afternoon the Gymnastics room is occupied by one of Rocky Mount Senior High School's less publicized clubs. This club is the Modern Dance Group advised by Mrs. Betty Pryor.

The objective of the club is to interpret modern music into a dance. This is done creatively by the girls in a trial-by-error method. A record is played, and each girl dances, interpreting the music into her own individual dance. After the record has finished playing, techniques from each girl's dance are combined and a modern dance is created.

The club has many activities planned for this year, although many are still being debated upon. These activities include one assembly in the spring, the possibility of performing with the Dramatics Club, entertaining at basketball games during half-time, conducting money-raising projects with the Gymnastics Club, and performing out of school for the public.

Although the girls are satisfied with their performances last year, they are anticipating a few changes this year. They plan to perform more with recent music, and to switch from the red and black uniforms they wear now to brighter colored uniforms relating to the dances. They are also thinking of a possible new name for the club.

Members of the club are Beverly Powell, Brenda Ellis, Thelma Lee, Cynthia Dew, Terry Hines, Mary Ann Reid, Cynthia Hinton, Robin Joe, and mascot Regell Pryor. New members are chosen in the spring of each year.

"Success is like a cat. It refuses to come if you call it, but if you don't pay too much attention, it's all over you, purring and shedding hairs."

Officers Elected For Clubs

Rocky Mount Senior High is well arrayed with many clubs throughout each school year. These clubs are organized by interested teachers and students who want to keep the school spirit alive and going.

In order for these clubs to be effective they must be led by efficient and dedicated officers such as these:

The Good Sports Club is led by Mrs. Barbara Edwards. The President is Wanda Henderson, Vice-President: Stephanie Branch, Secretary: Cathy Allen, Treasurer: Eva Bartly.

Advisor of the Service Club is Mrs. Jacqueline Heston. She is aided by President: Kim Wood, Vice-President: Debra Ess, Recording Secretary: Kim English, Corresponding Secretary: Susan Kitts, Treasurer: Ginger Harlow, Chaplain: Susan Batts.

The members of the RMSH DECA Chapter are always involved actively in their classes. The class leaders are President: Marvin Thorne, Vice-President: Blaine Todd, Secretary: Gail Phillips, Treasurer: Libby Turner, Parliamentarian: Beverly Powell, Historian: Dawn Gindrup, Sgt. at Arms: Linda Battle, W.C. Allen.

The Masquers are headed by drama teacher Mr. Bill Rawls. The officers are President: Mary Rowley, Vice-President: Tommy Bulluck, Secretary: Beverly Powell, Treasurer: Anne Daughtridge.

Mrs. Betty Pryor, girl's gym teacher, leads two very talented groups in the school. These are The Gymnastics Team and The Modern Dance Group. The officers for the Gymnastics are: President: Vickie Taylor, Vice-President: Julie Smith, Secretary: Anne Ramsey. Leaders of The Modern Dance Group include President: Cynthia Hinton, Vice-President: Robin Joe, Secretary-Treasurer: Brenda Reid.

The Kudos Club headed by Mrs. Poole, has only elected their President, Beverly Powell, but they are making plans for the future.

The Booster Club, Phalanx Club and the National Honor Society have yet to elect their officers.
