Kiwanis Person Chosen

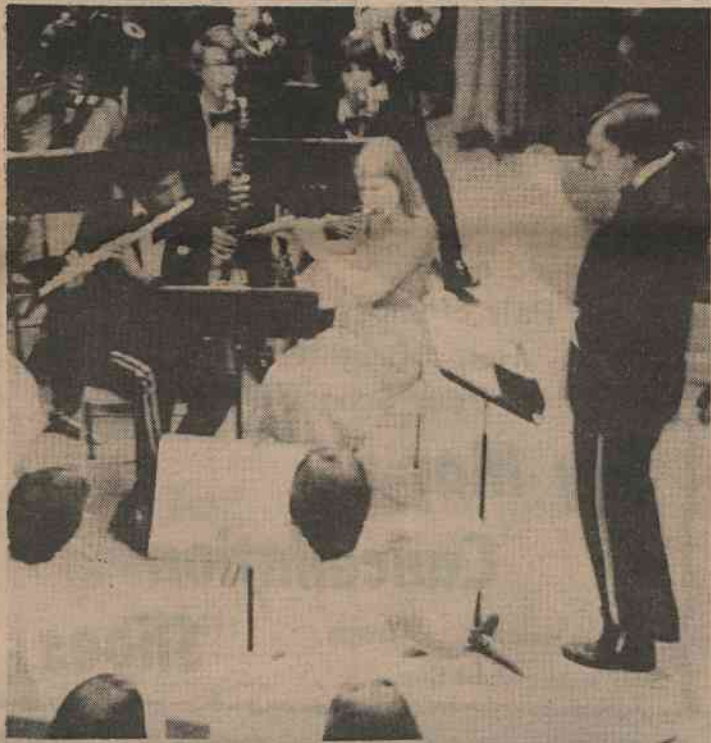

"Who, me?" This was Myrna Lowe's first comment on being selected as "lady of the month," or Kiwanis Person. Myrna is a very busy young lady, active in many school organizations as well as outside activities.

She is involved in Dramatics and Art. Recently, Myrna played as Eve in "The Apple Bit," a play given at the Tank Theatre. She was also a model in the school's bicentennial program.

Myrna loves all kinds of clothes but says "I really like jeans and things. My legs are much too skinny for dresses." Myrna plans to attend the Atlanta School of Fashion Design and Illustration in Atlanta, Ga., where she will study fashion designing.

Myrna is a member of the SRA, acting as chairman of the publications committee. She also plays the clarinet and serves in the color guard in the band. In her spare time, Myrna does a lot of drawing and sketching which will be beneficial to her in fashion designing. She has a true gift for communicating with others and uses her talent at WRSV where she does commercials and acts as secretary. Myrna has enjoyed her three years at Senior High and she exclaims with a big smile on her face, "I guess I love the people most of all!"

Committee Ends Year

The annual AFS Banquet, held May 18 at 6:30 at the YMCA, was a time of Hellos and Good-byes. The Committee said good-bye to Helo Martins and Natasha Matkin, and hello to its new exchange student and new officers.

Heloisa Helena Toleda Martins, better known as Helo, was Rocky Mount Senior High's foreign exchange student for '75-'76. She has actively participated in all aspects of student life, including the Girls Basketball and Tennis Teams.

Natasha Matkin, a junior at RMSH, will be traveling to Tarquira, Italy, this June. Instead of living in a home, she along with 35 other people, will be camping in tents at an archaeological dig.

The foreign exchange student for next year was also announced at the banquet. She is Elisa Maria Gonzales from Costa Rica. She will reside with Suzanne and Travis Cobb. The officers for next year were announced, and they are: Chapter; Jeanie Munn — Res. Vice President.
