

School Holds Homecoming

STUDENTS display costumes for hick day, 50's day, Halloween day, and the mini-parade in a show of school spirit for the homecoming game.

The dress up days, the mini-parade, and the election of Homecoming Queens all helped to make the days of October 25-29 "the most exciting week of the school year," as one vampire observed.

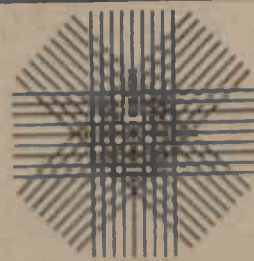

The week before the Homecoming Game at Senior High is traditionally marked by special activities. This year, Monday was Kiddie Day. School-spirited students dressed like small children. Tuesday was Fifties Day. The students dressed in hobbit socks, long skirts, and ponytails, and some dressed as the "Fonz." Wednesday, the students paid tribute to the Northern Nash Knights by observing Hick Day. Thursday, there were strange-looking people walking the halls of Senior High. This was Halloween dress up day. Finally, many students paid tribute to the football team Friday as they wore blue and gold, the school colors.

The mini-parade was held on Friday, Oct. 29 in the gym. This parade is sponsored by the Service Club. The first place winner was the Senior Class Float. The second place winner was Homeroom 128. The third place winner was the Future Homemakers Of America Club.

The Homecoming Queens and their court were presented at half-time during the game. They are as follows: Homecoming Queens are Susan Thorne and Lanie Powell. First runners up are Pam Daniels and Veronica Yates. Second runners up are Ruth Battle and Denise Alston. Junior sweethearts are Terri Proctor and Ethel Mozell. Sophomore sweethearts are Cheryl House and Toni Williams.
