

Honors Round Up

Rotary Couple Selected

Laura Hardy and James Randall have been selected the March Rotary Couple. Laura was elected homeroom vice president in her sophomore year. She is a member of the Sub Deb Club. She has served as Bible School assistant teacher at her church. In her spare time Laura enjoys doing embroidery and takes dance lessons twice a week. Laura plans to attend the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill next year and major in accounting. James has participated in the Boy Scouts Association and has been a delegate to the Research Triangle Field Study from the Rotary Club. He was chosen homeroom president his sophomore, junior, and senior years. James enjoys playing basketball in his spare time. He has made plans to attend North Carolina State University.

LAURA PARTICIPATES: Laura was chairman of the Publicity Committee her junior year. She acted as Sophomore Class Treasurer. She was chosen as one of the four juniors to participate in the NCTE Writing Contest last year. She is presently involved in the President's Cabinet, Student Store Committee, and the Service Club, which she is president. She is a National Merit Commended Student, a delegate to Girl's State, a member of the NHS, and is a nominee for the National Honor Society Scholarship.

JAMES PARTICIPATES: James is a senior band member and was a nominee for the McDonald's All-American Band. He was a SRA representative both sophomore and junior years and played basketball and football his sophomore year.

Kiwanis Person Chosen

Bettie Whitaker has been selected as the Kiwanis person for March. She says, "I was surprised when I found out I had been chosen." Bettie holds a part-time job at the Superintendent's office doing chores such as typing. In her spare time she enjoys cooking and sewing. Bettie is planning to attend East Carolina University and major in accounting. She says she is really looking forward to attending college in the fall.

BETTIE PARTICIPATES: Bettie is a member of the National Honor Society, an SRA representative, and is in the Future Business Leaders of America.
