Rotary Couple Chosen

Two Seniors, Michael Edmond and Ann Dinan, have been chosen as Rotary Couple of the month. Both students are actively involved in school activities.

anticipates attending North Carolina State University, majoring in engineering.

Club. Ann plans to attend the University of North Carolina and major in law.

"I was happy and pleased when I was told of my selection," said Michael.

Her reaction to being chosen part of Rotary Couple was one of excitement. "I was surprised. I couldn't believe it!"

Michael is a member of the National Honor Society and is one of the two drum majors in the Rocky Mount Senior High Marching Band. He is also President of his Missionary Church Youth Group. Michael enjoys basketball, football and talking with other people. He

Ann is very interested in horses and enjoys horseback riding and swimming. She is Vice-President of the National Honor Society and a member of the Phalanx Club and Latin

Students selected as Rotary Couples of the month are chosen on the basis of being a representative of the city. The student must contribute to the student body through academics and school activities.

Kiwanis Person Selected

The Kiwanis person for the month of December is Keith King. On finding out he was chosen, Keith went back to the office and said: "Can you please tell me again? I forgot everything you said." He was busy with a GRYPHON deadline and they told him the afternoon before he was to attend the meeting.

According to Keith: "The Kiwanis person attends each meeting during the month he has been chosen. They attend luncheons every Thursday. These luncheons feature guest speakers. At the last meeting of the month the Kiwanis person makes a short address to the group."

Keith is the editor of THE GRYPHON staff here. He has an "A" average, he is a member of the Traffic Committee, the AFS Committee, and the National Honor Society. Keith is planning to attend the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and continue his study in the field of Journalism.

Clubs Stay Active

NHS

The National Honor Society had a banquet for new members December 1 at Parkers Barbecue. The new members were entertained with songs and games by the old members.

Mrs. Tweedy, former advisor of the N.H.S., Mrs. Hayworth and Mrs. Van Buskirk were guests at the banquet.

The Christmas tree in the student lounge was decorated by the N.H.S. Most of the decorations were hand made by the members. Sarah Clements headed the decoration committee.

The N.H.S. members also ushered at the Rocky Mount Senior High Christmas Concert.

Library Club

The library has a new collection of recently published titles out now. The books are displayed in the library and are ready for circulation according to Mrs. Davis. Lists of the books will soon be put up in the library and classrooms.

In January the library club will set up a Swap-Shop Book Nook. This activity will allow students and faculty to swap books that they have had at home and have finished reading. This activity will continue through the semester. All students are urged to come swap a book.

The Library Club also has been busy decorating the library for Christmas.

RAT TEST

Rats fed a variety of fermented and non-fermented milk products grew faster when fed yogurt, in tests conducted by scientists of USDA's Agricultural Research Service.

Good Sports Club

The Christmas Tree in the main lobby was set up and decorated by the Good Sports Club under the direction of Mrs. Joan Godwin. The Good Sports Club puts up the tree every year in the main lobby.

The Good Sports Club will start selling ribbons for all future home basketball games.
