

PLAY DELIGHTS HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

On Wednesday morning, February 25, the high school was very much delighted with the chapel program. It was under the direction of the Dramatic Club, both Miss Riby's and Miss Brabham's sections. The High School song was first sung, after which a one-act play was given.

The name of the play was "The Rector," present time, and in the study of a country parsonage. The characters were as follows:

Mr. Herresford—Wilcox Brightwell.

Mrs. Lemmingworth—Lena Carter.
Miss Trimble—Ethel Coble.

Victoria Knox—Louise Parker.

Margaret Norton—Grace Pickler.

Mrs. Munsey—Mary Elizabeth Efrid.

Janie—Hettie Rollins.

The enjoyment of the play and the appreciation of the Dramatic Club's effort was shown by the profound silence and attention given through the entire performance. We hope that other clubs will give us some more programs just as entertaining. —Creechman Rowland.

IN MEMORY OF GEORGE WASHINGTON.

On February 24 some of the classes gave George Washington programs to keep his birthday on the 22. Appropriate songs were sung by the classes, talks were made on the following subjects: Washington's Boyhood, Proofs of His Gentleness, Bravery, Kindness and Love for Animals, His Ideals, His Habits, His Mottoes, His Military Life, His Life as President, His Home Life and How the Spirit of Washington Lives Among us Today. It was also interesting to note in connection with these programs the great world-wide celebration that is to be held on February, 1932, Washington's two hundredth anniversary. All nations are expected to participate, since it is believed that Washington belongs not to us alone but to the whole world. His being the father of our country, our peace and prosperity makes him the uncle of all other nations.

"Yes, it's really remarkable," a fond mother was explaining to her guests. "Bobby seems to eat twice as much chicken when we have visitors."

Some one asked Bobby how he accounted for it.

"Well because that's the only time we have chicken," was Bobby's disconcerting reply.

INTERESTING CHAPEL PROGRAM GIVEN

At the regular chapel meeting on Wednesday an interesting program was given by the cartooning club.

Jack Floyd drew a historical picture of George Washington behind the barn. This was followed by a round pig drawn by the same amateur artist.

Athur Moss then came out on the stage to pose for a picture. Jack Floyd again displayed his skill by drawing a picture of Mr. Moss in his old age.

Arthur drew a picture of a large ape and we were informed that this was Jack Floyd at the present.

This program was thoroughly enjoyed by the student body and we have great hopes for the success of the club.

One for the Old Timers.

Brown—"Have you succeeded in capturing Miss Smith's hand yet?"

Jones—"No, but I got close to it. I got the mitten."
