

Mr. McDaniel: "Max, if you sold me something belonging to "Woody", what would each of us be called?"

Max: "Well, I'd be the broker, "Woody" the consigner, and you would be the - - -."

Henry Broadwell: "You'd be the sucker!"

- - -

In sociology class:

Mr. Hatley: "J. W., cut off that noise."

J. W.: "I can't find the switch."

- - -

Miss Moore: "James, what is a vacuole?"

James Long: "Something with nothing in it."

- - -

Freshman: (after walking out in the country and seeing a field of cat-tails)

"Guess what, I saw a field of hot dogs to-day."

- - -

Mr. Hatley: "What is a monogamic family?"

Homer: "It means my big brother can run things more as he pleases at home."

- - -

Mr. Hatley: "What is meant by mortality statistics?"

Joe Allen: "That's a person who's proud-who thinks he knows something but doesn't."

- - -

Miss Watson: "Who was the hero of the first English prose romances?"

Orge Cooper: "Sitting Bull."

- - -

Miss Hipp: "What is done with the seat of a congressman after his death?"

Henry Efird: "It's buried with the rest of his body."

- - -

Miss Hipp: "Use tariff in a sentence."

John Snuggs: "My pants will tear if I stoop."

- - -

Miss Hipp: "How long has King George V ruled?"

Bill Lowder: "Ever since his father died."

- - -

"One of our little pigs was sick, so I gave him some sugar."

"Sugar-what for?"

"For medicine, of course.

Haven't you heard of sugar-cured hams?"

- - -

Patient: "Will the anaesthetic make me sick?"

Doctor: "No, I think not."

Patient: "How long will it be before I know anything?"

Doctor: "Aren't you expecting too much of an anaesthetic?"

- - -

BONERS

The physical basis of life is biology.

Three insects are timber beetles, termites, and tornadoes.

Hydraulic (hydrochloric) acid.

This will give ten feet-pounds (foot-pounds).

Certified milk is milk that has been tested every six months.

Who started our post office system? Mr. Post.

* * *