

WHO'S WHO

FRANCES HATLEY

Frances Hatley, Field Day queen, voted the best-looking and most attractive girl in her class, is the seniors' choice for Who's Who in her special edition. With her friendliness and sweet disposition, she has made herself popular among all the students. President of her homeroom, a member of the council of the Girls' Athletic association, a member of the Journalistic club, and a star player on the basketball team, she is one of the most outstanding seniors.

Concerning her favorites, Frances says, "My pastime is playing a some sport, usually basketball. Collecting photographs is my hob-

H. M. AUSTIN, Jr.

As 11-2 representative to the Advisory Council, H. M. Austin, Jr., has proved his leadership ability. During his senior year he has served as president of his home room and of the French club. An active member of the Glee club, he has shown much progress in his music this year. His good disposition, friendliness, and co-operative spirit have made him a popular member of the senior class.

H. M. has an unusual hobby of collecting odd rocks. His favorite pastimes are reading and horseback riding. "In the sports world," he says, "I like swimming and football best. Lloyd C. Douglas and 'Vain of Iron' are my favorites in literature."

Next year, H. M. expects to attend Elon college, where he will begin a law course. After two years at that school, he plans to complete his work at Wake Forest.

by. I like Van Dine for his mysteries better than any other author, and 'Strange Proposal' by Hill is my choice of books."

Next year Frances plans to enter High Point college or Appalachian State Teachers' college to begin training for either a stenographer or a physical education director.
