Holidays Announced

Mr. Grig has announced the holidays for this school year. Thanksgiving—Nov. 25 and 26. Christmas—Dec. 18 to Jan. 3. Easter—Friday and Monday. This is the schedule which has always been followed until last year; when, for various reasons, Thanksgiving and Easter holidays were omitted and a three-week vacation given for Christmas.

Teachers Issuing Ration Book No. 4

Teachers will complete the issuing of War Ration Book 4 here this afternoon between 1 and 5 o'clock. Applications for the book were carried home by the oldest member of the family this past Tuesday. There was room for the names of eight people on each application.

They were filled out by the family and on Wednesday or Thursday or Friday were brought back with War Ration Book 3 by the student or by some other person in the family. The school was divided into thirds; that is, part were asked to come one day, a part the next day, and the rest on the last day.

Families who did not have children in school came any day possible for them. They had to have War Ration Book 3 before they could get No. 4.

There were several teachers in the Library who checked the applications and Book No. 4. In the study hall applicants were given their new books. Students were given a half-holiday these three days.

Redwine, Sifford, Palmer, Morton To Head Seniors

Bob Redwine was elected president; Jimmie Sifford, vice president; Jeanne Palmer, secretary; and Rose Catherine Morton, treasurer of the senior class on October 11.

Opposing Bob was Ken Ritchie who gave him a close race for the office. The only other close election was between Jeanne Palmer and Rhoad Russell for secretary.

Bob is an outstanding twelfth grader. While in high school he has been cheer leader, in many plays, in chorus classes, and business manager of the "Full Moon." Jimmie is one of the football heroes of the school. He is social representative this year and has been before.

Jeanne was council representative in the eighth grade and is secretary of her home room in the high school. She is secretary and treasurer of the National Honor Society.

Rose Catherine was president of her home room in the tenth grade and is secretary this year. She is a member of the National Honor Society and was a marshal at the commencement last year. She has been in the dramatics clubs all through high school and is president this year. She has been in many plays. She was a member of the football team and was the winning contest play last year.

MRS. LAWS DIES

Mrs. DON LARA, mother of Mrs. Edwin Jennings, died Tuesday morning at her home in Moravian Falls.

Mrs. Laws had been in ill health for the past year. Funeral rites were held at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

P. T. A. to Sponsor Halloween Frolic Tomorrow Night

Tomorrow Prizes Offered For Most Original Costumes, Games and Contests.

Prizes for the most original costumes and for many games and contests will be offered at the Halloween parade and carnival sponsored by the Central Elementary school P. T. A. at the Armory tomorrow.

The carnival, which begins at four o'clock, will have many games and booths with generous prizes of baskets of groceries, a turkey, pound cakes, beads, bracelets, and other toys numerous to mention. Admission will be ten cents for adults and five cents for children, with a grand prize given to the lucky ticket holder, which last year was a half ton of coal. Many refreshments will be served, including hamburgers, and cold drinks will be at the convenience of those wishing to enjoy the supper there.

The parade will start promptly at six o'clock at the Armory and will proceed through town and back.

There will be two grand prizes offered: a $25.00 for a boy and girl with the most original costume.

Up to a high prize of $2.50 in war stamps will be given for the best costume in each of the three divisions: high school, grammar school, and primary grades, with the runner-up receiving $1.00 each.

The proceeds from this festival will go to the Central Elementary School Parent-Teacher Association. A display of the many prizes to be given may be seen in the window of the Merchant's Association.

Stamps Are Sold Every Thursday

A total of $147.75 in bonds and stamps was sold last Thursday in the high school.

Three $7.50 bonds were sold and $91.50 in stamps.

Stamps were sold in the afternoon led the school with $23.90; Miss Rogers' homeroom was second with $13.30; and third was Mrs. Jennings' homeroom with $8.25.

Stamps and bonds will be sold every Thursday hereafter in each homeroom.

By Their Words

"No, I didn't take a shower. It's there one missing!"—Labe Little.

"You can't give without loving."—Mrs. Peebles.

"I can't read music myself. I just go up when the others go."—Patsy Ingram.

"Who's the best looking boy on the football team, and why am I?"—James Ledbetter.

"If you can sit still, don't ever wear a new leather jacket to a meeting. I did, and every time I moved, it sounded like an accordion."—Patsy Ingram.

"You can't learn to drive an auto without watching, and you can't learn geometry by watching either. Get busy!"—Miss Caughy.

"Yes, French cats are like American cats—there are men cats and lady cats."—Mrs. Harris.

"If you donate your blood to the Red Cross, it might be that your own brother could profit by it."—Evelyn Morton.

"A sea lion—that's a lion in the ocean."—Patsy Ingram.

"If you fill soprano, sing up over here."—Mr. Fry talking to Mixed Chorus.

It Agrees With Some And Disagrees With Others - - What? The New Time Schedule

"I want the 9:00 time." "No, I don't like the 9:00 schedule, I want the 8:30 time." "I don't school at 3:45." "I get out this sleeping late." "You guessed it, the school old debate arose. The schedule has won out, though. Opinions as to who preferred the 9:00 schedule and who preferred the 8:30 schedule were so varied that it would be hard to say which schedule was the more popular.

After scouting around in all the grades and asking a great many people what they thought, you can get an idea of what makes principal's heads turn gray.

"Bob Redwine says, 'Heck yes, give me 9:00 any day. I get home later and get out of a lot of work." Just opposite is Rhoda Russell, "I don't like getting out so late. I can't get anything done in the afternoon."

"I can manage 30 minutes longer at night now. Yes, sir, I like this 9:00 stuff," replied Mahlon Hill. But "Goon Little" says, "Well, I like the 8:30 time, because when you go at 9:00, that means you stay up later at night and the later you stay up, the more money you spend."

"I don't agree," says Miss Kirby seem to agree, "I can get my mail before coming to school with this 9:00 time."

Deralen Whiteley, Jim Lamar, and Joe Horton (and quite a few others) say, "The mornings are

O. K., but hang the afternoons." "When we had the 8:30 time I didn't have to lay out of school to go to the show, but now!" says Alma Morris with enthusiasm.

"I don't want to agree with the others on getting out so late in the afternoons," I like the mornings, but despise the afternoons." "When we have this 9:00 time, we get out of football practice too late," agrees Marcus Mills and Jack Harris.

"Well, at least you have time to pray a little," says Jimmie Crofts, and the other girls will have to agree to that. "Peggy Mann says hopefully, "My beauty sleep is a lot longer now, maybe." Ann Lowder says disgustedly, "I ain't talking
