

The Full Moon

ALBEMARLE, N. C., OCTOBER 2, 1946

Number 1

Volume 25

College Center Opens At A.H.S.

Paul B. Fry, Director, Announces Faculty and Schedule.

Registration of students for the Albemarle freshman college center, which opened at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon, will continue through Thursday afternoon, announced Paul B. Fry, director of the local center.

The faculty for one section, composed of three classes, has already been approved by the sponsoring agencies of the state. Mr. Fry has listed a temporary faculty list for a second section in the event that enough students register for the freshman college work here.

On Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 an assembly of all registered students was held at the high school. At this time definite hours for beginning the classes was worked out to suit the majority of the students. Following the assembly, aptitude tests were given during two one-half hour periods.

Each student is expected to take one full three courses, mathematics, English and social science, being offered during the fall quarter. Other courses will be offered during the last two quarters of the college term. The three courses given here are the same as those required by regular junior colleg-

Teachers for the center are Mrs. B. C. Parker, English; H. C. McFadyen, social science; and Miss Chicora Caughman, Math.

Two Schools Join Association 100%

A membership drive is being conducted now to enroll teachers in the National Education association as well as in the state and local associations. Teachers in Efland and West Albemarle schools have enrolled 100% in all three units.

Officers of the local unit were elected last spring. They are president, Mr. Fry; vice president, Miss Beulah Lyerly; secretary, Miss Mae Ramsey; and treasurer, Miss Pauline Whitley.

Plans are now being made for the year's work. Teachers will be working in committees on various projects.

News Briefs

Miss Chicora Caughman has been appointed as the Senior sponsor for this year's class, and Miss Peebles has accepted the sponsorship of the Junior Red Cross.

All Vocational students and Mr. Wilson have had a blood test and microscope examination at the health department.

One of the best mimeograph machines sold by the A. B. Dick company has been purchased for the Albemarle high school and should be received in the next few weeks.

At the beginning of the school year, Rose's Five and Ten Cent store sent gifts to each teacher including notebooks, notepaper, pens, and erasers.

There are seven men on the faculty this year: Mr. Morris, Mr. Wilson, Coach DeLotto, Mr. Fry, Mr. Hatley, Mr. Hatley, and Mr. Mc-solid Geometry and boys physical education are new subjects that are being taught in the A. H. S. this year. Miss Caughman is teaching Solid Geometry, and Coach DeLotto is teaching physical ed.

Miss Pearl Micheal and Mrs. Paul B. Fry have been temporarily relieved for Math and English respectively. They will teach only during the enrollment justifies their employment.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Front row: Max Thompson, Oscar Lackey, Harold Poplin, Max Bogle, Alex Moorehead, John Helms, Donald McLain, Roy Holt. Middle row: Ottie Jane Springer, Jeneece Lowder, Louise Poplin, Madeline Hathcock, Mary Anna Peck, Elizabeth Elder, C. B. Cranford. Back row: Louise McLeod, Rebecca Drye, Betty Boone, Gaynelle Chandler, Mary Helen Cooper, Angela Moncrief, Elbert Whitley, Talmadge Moose, and Jimmy Kelly.

Homeroms Elect Officers For Year

Class officers for this year have recently been chosen by each homeroom. They are as follows:

Eighth grade: Mrs. Hinson's homeroom—president, Jane Little; vice president, Phyllis Kluttz; secretary, Jane Coggins; treasurer, Nell Hatley.

Mrs. Saunders' homeroom—president, Malcolm Lowder; secretary, Jane Smith; treasurer, Don Wagner.

Miss Reece's homeroom—president, Edward Patterson; vice president, Sidney Helms; secretary, Helen Harwood.

Miss Blanchard's homeroom—president, Jimmie Greene; vice president, Jeweline Holt; secretary, Wanda Crawford; treasurer, Joe McNulty.

Ninth grade: Miss Peebles' homeroom—president, Samuel Lunsford; vice president, Henry Forrest; secretary and treasurer, Mildred Kelly.

Miss Beaver's homeroom—president, Jimmy Austin; vice president, Bill Kluttz; secretary, Elizabeth Starr; treasurer, Douglas Archer.

Mrs. Fry's homeroom—president, Hattie Tucker; vice president, Hoyle Gilbert; secretary and treasurer, Ellene Holbrook.

Miss Gantt's homeroom—president, Elbert Holt; vice president,

Schedule For 1946-'47

Albemarle high school is expected to have the following schedule this year:

School started—September 4.

First report cards—October 17.

Thanksgiving—November 28 and 29.

Christmas—2 weeks vacation.

Mid-term examinations—January 22, 23, 24.

Easter—2 days vacation.

Commencement—June 2.

School closes—June 2.

Carolyn Poplin; secretary, Catherine Taylor; treasurer, John Bremer.

Tenth grade: Miss Warren's homeroom—president, Richard Crisco; vice president, Betty Jean Poplin; secretary, Joyce Hathcock; treasurer, Isabel Outlaw.

Mrs. Peiffer's homeroom—president, Kent Ballard; secretary, Anita Ledbetter.

Miss Michael's homeroom—president, Marion Sifford; vice president, Sue Herrin; secretary, Lula Morris; treasurer, John Haire.

Miss Misenheimer's homeroom—president, James Cox; vice president, Jimmie Carpenter; secretary, Robert Patterson; treasurer, Peggy Earp.

(Continued on page three.)

Full Moon To Be Eight-Page Paper

Due to the increased number of students in A. H. S. this year and the extra activities started, an eight-page issue of the Full Moon will be required to cover the news of the school.

This year, the sixth year in which the paper has been given free to the students of the school, the paper is being put out by Mrs. Fry's fifth period English class.

An eight-page issue is made possible by the increased number of ads sold to the Stanly County merchants by the members of the class. The feature, Who's Who, which was dropped last year due to the fact that there was no senior class, will be resumed this year. Who's Who was replaced last year by Little-Known People.

The Full Moon staff has not yet been elected, but will be chosen in time for the next issue.

Club Is Organized

In an effort to solve the problem of meals, twenty-one members of the city school faculty have organized the Twenty-One club, which meets twice a day (at breakfast and at supper) at Central school.

Miss Teague, home ec teacher, plans each day's meals, and there is a cook to prepare them.

Miss Michael keeps books, and divides expenses 21 ways.

Student Council Representatives Have Been Chosen

Homeroom representatives for the Student Council were elected last week. They are as follows:

Eighth grade: Miss Reece, Elizabeth Elder; Mrs. Hinson, Bobby Freeman; Miss Blanchard, Elbert Whitley; Mrs. Saunders, Talmadge Moose; Mrs. Ivey, Angela Moncrief.

Ninth grade: Miss Gantt, Betty Boone; Mrs. Fry, Mary Helen Cooper; Mr. Hatley, Rebecca Drye; Miss Beaver, Gaynelle Chandler; Miss Peebles, John Helms; Tenth grade: Miss Michael, Ernest Burleyson; Mrs. Peiffer, Jimmy Kelly; Miss Misenheimer, Roy Holt; Miss Warren, Madeline Hathcock; Mr. Peiffer, Max Thompson.

Eleventh grade: Miss Maxwell, Louise Poplin; Miss Spears, Jeneece Lowder; Miss Holbrook, Louise McLeod.

Twelfth grade: Mr. Wilson, Harold Poplin; Mrs. Crisco, Ottie Jane Springer; Mr. Fry, C. B. Cranford; Miss Caughman, O. B. Lackey.

Officers, elected last spring, are Max Bogle, president; Alex Moorehead, vice president; Cecil Milton, treasurer; and Martha Moore, secretary. Mr. McFadyen is sponsor of the organization.

Ely Culbertson Will Speak Here On October 17

Ely Culbertson, the nationally known contract bridge player and peace plan expert, will speak on World Peace to the members of the Talk of the Month club here on October 17.

Mr. Culbertson, the first of a series of speakers to be brought here by the club, will speak at eight o'clock in the high school auditorium. A local person will introduce Mr. Culbertson.

Out-of-town guest tickets may be purchased from the treasurer of the club at the Cabarrus bank by members prior to the lecture. Guest tickets will be $1.20. Tickets will not be on sale at the doors.

Recently membership in the club was reopened for teachers, students and citizens of the county who were absent last spring when the regular membership campaign was held.

Scheduled speakers for the year are radio commentator, Mrs. Dorothy Fuldheim, December 14; Arthur Walwyn Evans, a Welsh humorist, on January 16; and February 5, labor relations authority, Whiting Williams, will speak.

Club officers who were elected last spring are president, Paul Fry; vice president, Miss Blanche King; treasurer, Max Casper; and secretary, Miss Evelyn Pannill.

By Their Words..

"You'll miss these questions if you can't answer them." — Mr. Hatley.

"I'm interested in money, too' but I don't have any." — Henry Walker.

When Jack Harris walked into Mr. Fry's room, Whee Perry said, "I don't know what it is, but tell it to get out."

"I thought slavery went out when Lincoln died." — Harold Perry.

"My car may not be worth much, but I don't leave the keys in it anyway." — Mr. McFadyen.

"Everybody be quiet, please Charles." — Miss Maxwell.

"Someone said there was a stage up there, but I can't see it." — Steve Boyett during chapel.

"I wish I had been born with some brains instead of so good looking." — Diz Owens.

"Gene Whitlock, untie those window cords and find some other plaything." — Mrs. Fry.

"Give the boy a chair so he can bleed to death comfortably." — Mr. McFadyen.

Three Former Teachers and Six New Ones Join Faculty, Making Total of 26

Nine new teachers have been added to the faculty this year—four more than last year. This increase is because of the large number of twelfth graders and returning veterans.

Mrs. George O. Stovall, Mrs. D. H. Peiffer, and M. J. DeLotto, former teachers of A. H. S., have resumed their teaching posts here. New teachers are D. H. Peiffer and Misses Alice Blanchard, Betty Maxwell, Emily Teague, Lillian Misenheimer, and Dorothy Spears.

Due to the large number of students taking commercial subjects, Mrs. Stovall is teaching typing to first year typists. She spent last winter with her husband in Fort Crook, Nebraska.

Mrs. Peiffer, who spent last year in Scotland, Pa., where her husband was in service, is back again, teaching tenth and twelfth English and coaching dramatics.

M. J. DeLotto is back at A. H. S. and "is just the handy man." He is teaching physical education and coaching the football team. He spent 40 months in service, as senior grade lieutenant, in Boston, New York, Norfolk, London, Plymouth, and San Diego.

Miss Alice Blanchard, from Hobblesville, N. C., is teaching the eighth grade. After graduation from W. C. U. N. C., she taught at Erwin, N. C. When asked her impression of A. H. S., she replied, "A fine place." To be her ideal student, "You must use your time wisely" and "don't be inconsiderate of others."

Take a peep into room 86 and you will find Miss Misenheimer, teacher of ninth and tenth grade English. She taught at Granite Quarry, Rockwell, and Oakboro, after her graduation from Lenoir Rhyne College. She thinks A. H. S. is "one of the best high schools in the state." She dislikes "laziness, indifference, and lack of interest in a student," while a person who is "interested, attentive, conscientious and does his best on all his assignments" rates high with her.

Miss Spears says A. H. S. "is great!" If you are in her sociology or eleventh grade English class, you had better try, because that's the type of student she likes. She graduated from W. C. U. N. C. and attended Carolina. Her home town is Fayetteville, N. C.

"It's big! My high school had a hundred pupils," is Miss Maxwell's answer when asked her impression of A. H. S. She is from Davidson N. C., and attended W. C. U. N. C. (Continued on page three.)