

SPORTS PARADE

TIM IVEY ALEX MOOREHEAD

Albemarle Bulldogs, although out of the conference by dropping the Children's and Salisbury games, will try to win their battle with Concord tonight.

The Concord Spiders, like the Bulldogs, have had several bad games this season, but Albemarle will find their battle with Spiders no pushover. However, Gantt and company are going to go, and we have no doubt that the Bulldogs will win.

was just O. K. He recommends it for anyone who hasn't corns, big feet, fallen arches, athlete's foot, ingrowing toenails, or flat feet.

Miss Caughman finally admitted the other day that she didn't know too much about the fundamentals of football, and since she had so many of the stars in her second year algebra class, it would be a good time to get some of those questions answered. So George and Frank Winecoff, Cecil Milton, Bob Gantt, Tom Hinson, and Buddy Lowder agreed to answer all the questions they could that she and the class would ask.

Among those asked were: How long is a football field? Why do the officials wear striped shirts? Is it warmer on a football field than in the bleachers? How many quarters in a football contest? How many dimes? Does the offensive team necessarily have to be in possession of the ball? How does the official always know which way the ball will bounce?

As to the length of a football field some bright student stated 300 yards when Albemarle has the ball, 30 yards when Children's Home has it.

An eighth-grader watching two members of the varsity eleven giving the blocking machine a hard time, remarked, "I sure would like to have had those two boys behind my lawn mower this summer" . . . Let's hope those boys still have plenty of energy and push Concord around like a lawn mower tonight.

With all the newspapers and girls chasing shy "Goo Goo" around so much he is liable to get "plumb" off his course and Albemarle will come up for a conference game short of the star fullback. Anyone asked where they can find Bob Gantt probably will get this answer: "He is out on the football field having his picture taken."

Albemarle Varsity Takes Monroe 7-0

Albemarle Bulldogs marched to victory in their first conference game of the season against Monroe at the Monroe high athletic field October 10 with a score of 7-0.

A. H. S. encountered some of its toughest competition. Both sides retired at the end of the first quarter with no score. A drive tallied by Gantt and Klutz in the second quarter proved to be successful, with Gantt carrying the ball across the goal line from Monroe's one-yard line. The try for the extra point was successful, with Milton kicking. With a score of 7-0 Albemarle carried her own for the remainder of the period and the rest of the game.

The whole game was centered on the strong defensive lines of both teams, who found it impossible to shake their backfield speedsters loose for any spectacular gains. The contest was marked by vicious blocking and tackling, with several Albemarle players hurt during the course of the battle.

Gantt, Klutz and Kirkpatrick stood out for winners on the Albemarle team, receiving outstanding cooperation from the rest of their colleagues, while Lee was the sparkplug of Monroe's offensive.

Pups Tie Badin; Watt Volt Is Weak

The Albemarle Bullpups pulled through to a 7-7 tie in a rip-roaring game at Badin Tuesday afternoon, showing that they can play ball if they try.

Albemarle's score came early in the game when the whole Bullpup line came through to block Badin's kick. Jim Miller, who had charged in on the play, caught the ball and raced twenty yards for a T. D. Cecil Milton's conversion was good, and the Bullpups led 7-0.

Melvin Carpenter's kick was partially blocked when the Bullpups were forced to kick on their own 26 yard line. Mullis, thinking that it was a free ball, committed a 15-yard penalty when he caught it in mid-air, but Albemarle was penalized 25 yards on the play, placing the ball on their own one-yard stripe. After three tries the Watts ran it over with their try for extra point being good.

Bullpups Drop One To Troy Varsity

The very much out-weighted Albemarle Bullpups came out on the short end of a hard fought game with Troy at the Albemarle stadium Thursday night, 19-0.

The first score came as a complete surprise to the Albemarle fans when Troy completed a short pass to a flanker who wove through the Albemarle backfield to score in the last minutes of the first half.

The final scores came in the last quarter, ending the game 19-0.

Carpenter, Kelly and Lowder were the backfield favorites, with Captain Bob Youngblood and Sam McManus showing up well in the Bullpup line.

Mullis were the favorites in the Albemarle line, with Jim Kelly and Melvin Carpenter sharing honors in the backfield.
