MRS. FRY WAS EXPLAINING to her Full Moon class about verbs used in headlines. To illustrate she read from that morning's paper, "Wake Forest Deacons Blast Tar Heels."

Trying to emphasize the verb, she added, "Blast them."

ANITA LEDBETTER

Beauty Queen Is Chosen By A.H.S.

Anita Ledbetter has been chosen No. 1 beauty of AHS by the senior class to represent Albemarle in the Charlotte Christmas Festival to be held November 12.

Not only is Anita a striking beauty with brown hair and brown eyes, but she has a pleasing personality and is one of the high school's most popular seniors. She is quite active in school work: secretary of the senior class, a member of the Senior Gift committee, a member of the typing club, and was a marshal at last year's graduation exercises. She plans to enter nurses training next September.

Anita is looking forward to an exciting day in Charlotte. The plans for the festival include transportation and hotel accommodations, a ride on one of the floats carrying beauty queens from the two Carolinas, and a banquet and dance. The high light of the day will be the crowning by Anne Jeffreys, prominent movie actress, of the beauty queen chosen from the girls represent-
