Fox's Fashions

Feelin' lazy? Well, blame it on exams being over and this "spring-y" weather. Valentine's Day is here, you might be "twitterpated" (a new word meaning "in love").

Anyway, as usual, spring clothes are now making their debut, and it looks like the skirts will be shorter, perhaps 14" or 15" from the floor. Suits this season will be checks and tweeds in many color combinations. Also new are the "shirt" dress and "grandfather" blouse. Both are made like men's shirts with pleats and tucks here'n'there. These come in pale, beautiful shades of pink, lavender, blue, etc. Small scarves, worn around the neck, go with just about every outfit. They come in solid colors and prints, look especially "sporty" with sweaters.

Betty Boone had a pink angora sweater on the other day and she confided to yours truly that it was a Christmas present. Lucky girl!

Royal or electric blue is very popular around here. Lois Lowder's and Jane Little's cardigans are lovely. Nell Hatley has a slip-over in blue which she teams with a natural skirt and cardigan; makes a smart outfit.

Another knockout is Joyce Crowell's chartreuse corduroy skirt. It has a cuff around the hem and pockets in the back.

Have you noticed Helen Harwood's lavender skirt, the short hair of Peggy Redfern, Nancy Austin, Betty Gantt, and Barbara Setzler? Cute!?!?

Keep your eyes alert for the new spring fashions. See you next month.

Junior Masquers Will Give Play

Junior members of the Black Masque will present a one-act play entitled "Boomerang" to the student body some time within the next two weeks.

This play, written by Helen Louise Miller, is about a high school election in which a girl plans a big campaign for her friend, a candidate for office, and it boomerangs. All the parts of the play will be portrayed by juniors of the Black Masque. This is the first time that tryouts have been limited to juniors rather than including all members of the club.
