

PEEPING TOMS

KID CAUSBY — SKIP McMANUS

APPLAUSE PLEASE FOR:

Coach Toby Webb, who, with his able assistants, has worked and striven to give Albemarle a good football team.

The Varsity, who have given their time and sweat to win games for old A.H.S. They're now in second place in the South Piedmont conference.

The Cheerleaders, for the work and patience it takes to get a little school spirit out of the students.

The B-team, who are trying to match the varsity in their standing.

Coach Bill Jeffords, who has worked hard to whip the B-team into shape. The Varsityes of the future depend on them.

Spencer Hatley, his band has really been above par this yera. We think they have shown up well against all our opponents. (Note the white shoes.)

R. C. Hatley, whose work with the new public address system has added new life to our games. (When it works.)

Mr. Cashwell, who has spent a lot of time with almost every group and individual in Albemarle High.

Miss Lentz, our senior class sponsor. It really takes a lot of patience. Applaud too, for her landing Dwight. That took patience too. Eh, Miss Lentz???

Miss Bankett and Miss Caldwell, our "Black Masque" play directors. We may even have a senior play this year.

Mr. Fry and the wonderful work he has done with the Mixed Chorus. We would also like to say something about his terrific work with the boys' chorus. It took some work for that crew of boys. (What say Reid, Kenny, Richard, Booge, Chicken, Cob?)

Mrs. Fry, who spends all her time getting the "Full Moon" out.

The "Full Moon" and annual staffs. The students taking part in these two things spend a lot of their out-of-school time working for you.

In fact, we want applause for A.H.S. and its students and teachers, because we think they are the best to be found.

NUTS TO:

The spectators at the football games. Why can't they cheer?

The people who throw cigarette butts into the sink and chewing gum into the water fountain.

The underclassmen who run down the halls at a reckless pace and then stand and talk to someone until they're late for class.

The helldrivers who think the roads around the school are race-tracks for their use only.

The girls who attempt to snow football players so that they can be sponsors.

The grandstand coaches who know more than Coach Webb and tell everyone, about it.

The snobs who think they're sent from heaven and everyone else is trash. Ouch!

These eternal gripers. Can't they ever be satisfied?

The students who slip into ball games. Always wanting something for nothing.

The studyhall quarterbacks. Watch out for your position, Swanner.

The people who tear up the magazines in the library.

The artists in the toilets and halls.

The clubs that aren't active this year. Let's get on the ball.

The seniors that are determined that if everything doesn't go their way, they'll pick up their marbles and go home. Most of them don't have all their marbles anyway.

The people that don't like this column. What's the matter? Does the shoe pinch? We send a note of sympathy.

Homecoming Activities Are Planned For Game Tonight

Homecoming comes but once a year, and today's the big day.

The football game tonight is scheduled between the Albemarle Bulldogs and the Concord Spiders. Each of the football players has asked a girl to sponsor him. These girls will walk across the field just before the game starts and sit in chairs until the half. At the half, each girl will be introduced and the queen of sponsors will be announced and presented one dozen red roses.

The following are sponsoring: Co-Captain Whit Whitley, Virginia Brown; Co-Captain Ed Patterson, Myra Davis; Reid McLendon, Helen Harwood; Bill Barnes, Jane Russell; Frank Eford, Margaret Brunson; Sidney Helms, Carolyn Miller; Kenny Brown, Janice Thomas; Kenny Whitley, Barbara Wilhoit; Charles Whitley, Sally Ausband; Buddy Donaldson, Carolyn Gaddy; Arthur Burris, Vina Ruth Lowder; Cecil Burleson, Kathleen Burris; Jimmy Skidmore, Carol Jo Herrin; Charles McManus, Judy Whitley; Harold Smith, Sue Redfern; Keith Byrd, Jessie Lee Smith; T-Boe McLendon, Barbara Low-der; Bruce Lowder, Emily Milton; Ken Holt, Jeanette McLendon; Bill Huckabee, Kathryn Groves; Leslie Swanner, Ruth Ann Copley; Johnny Youngblood, Carolyn Akers; Bud Griffin, O'lema Aldridge; Gene Snuggs, Betty Brunson; Doug Knotts, Patsy Pettit; Malcolm Lowder, Martha Griffith; and Johnny Boyette, Jo Ann Burrell.

After the game, a dance will be held in the old gym. Everyone is invited to attend. The admission is 25 cents stag or drag.

An added event is a parade which will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Some of the home rooms have entered floats and cars. The band and the cheerleaders will lead the parade, which will begin in front of the school. The group will stop on the square, where the cheerleaders will lead some yells.

Miss Tooze Speaks

Miss Tooze, who represents Book Fair, Inc., spoke to the 7th, 8th, and 9th grade pupils in the auditorium October 31. She entertained the group with a number of stories to arouse their interest in the Book Fair.

B-Team Defeats Concord Javees

Albemarle high school's "B" team beat the Concord "B" 19-7 last Thursday to keep their season's record perfect.

Concord won the toss and elected to receive, but they were unable to make any deadway. Albemarle took over on downs and started a touchdown march. A seven yard pass from Lawhorn to "Tub" Russell netted the first home team TD. Larry Bowers' kick was wide and the Bullpups led 6-0. Later in the first quarter Lawhorn seemed to be trapped on an end run, but he lateral-ed to "Booge" Bowers, who went all the way. Larry Bowers' try for the extra point was good, and the score read 13-0.

A second quarter pass from Lawhorn to Ray Gene Smith put Coach Jeffords' boys ahead 19-0 at the half.

Tub Russell took the second half kick-off on the 20 yard line. On the first play from scrimmage Albemarle fumbled on the Concord 35. Concord recovered and started a drive that scored their first and only touchdown. The kick was good; the score read 19-7, and as far as scoring is concerned, the game ended right there.
