Before a recent football game it was heard that Albemarle's right guard, T-Boe, had promised his sweetheart, "McKinney," that he would score a touchdown for her. As the game progressed, there was a fumbled punt which T-Boe was fortunate enough to receive, but instead of running with it, he picked it up and stood there until he was tackled.

Tough luck, McKinney!

Did you know that the varsity football squad has been having parties at halftime? Well, not parties exactly, but Coca-Colas are passed out so that it will settle their stomachs. It sure has been a help. Right, boys?

What do you think of this? He never gets into the game only to kick off and kick extra points after touchdowns. So while other players are getting themselves knocked out, he just exercises his big toe. Who? Bow Wow, of course.

It seems as though the graduates of AHS are not doing so bad this year. Goo Goo Gantt is playing first string wingback with Carolina and doing a very fine job. Under him are Ed Patterson and Johnny Helms. Ed, who is a freshman, has been playing some very good ball and is expected to do a lot more in the coming years. Johnny has also done exceedingly well playing B-team football.

Whit Whitley is doing a fine job playing defense end at Duke. Sid Helms is playing good J. V. football at State, while Elbert Holt and Bill Klutz are rocking things at Catawba; Don Kirkpatrick is holding extra points at Lenoir Rhyne after suffering a spine injury last year.

AHS football team has been invited to Duke University for the Duke vs. Wake Forest game, thanks to Doug Knotts, who seems to have a lot of pull at Duke. Wonder why?

Coach Webb terms it as, "That school will do anything to get Doug to go to school down there."

Anybody who has seen AHS team play lately has noticed the numbers 35 and 18. These numbers belong to Doug Knotts and Les Swanner, the two co-captains of AHS, who have really played some good football. We would like for you to watch these boys and see if you don't think that they are certain to go all the way and play some fine college football.

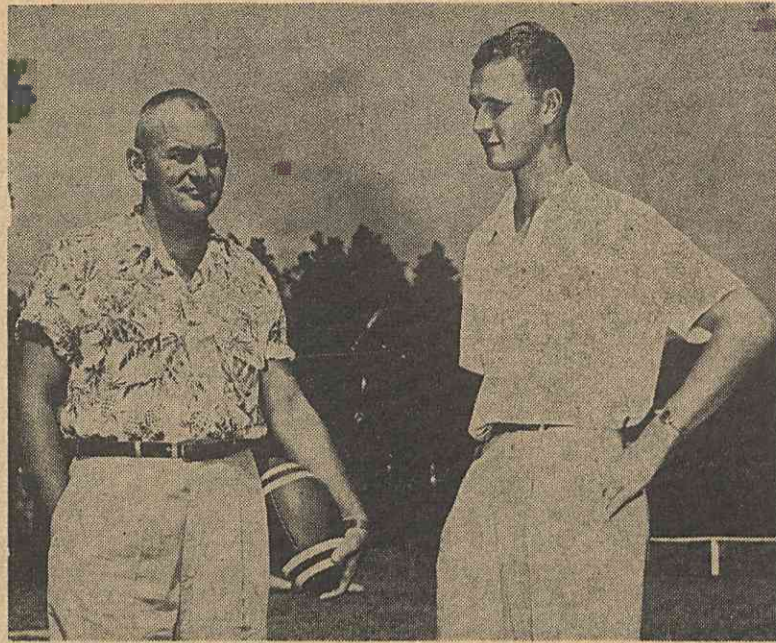

ACHES, CRIES, JUST DISGUISE

If you have often wondered the reason for about thirty girls rushing down the back stairs of A. H. S. immediately following the fifth period buzzer, it is nothing in the world but "Ma" Schell's girls trying to get to basketball practice on time.

Well, the practice the other day was going along fine until several girls started complaining of pains and aches, due to about 120 hours of exercise during the week. As stiff and sore as everybody seemed to be during the first thirty minutes of exercise, everyone began to obtain unknown strength and energy from heaven knows where the minute they started scrimmaging. You have never seen so much vim and vigor as was exerted by this aching and ailing bunch.

The horrible practice was finally wound up with the shooting of twenty-five foul shots, and I do mean foul.

It has been said that these athletes, or rather a capable few, set records of six out of twenty-five free shots, and they will probably be slated for the all-state girls' team.

BULLDOG COACHES—H. T. (Toby) Webb and Bill Jeffords. Their team has so far won five games, tied two, and lost one.

Bullpups Defeat Four More Teams

AHS "B"-team defeated Rockwell's gridders here on Monday night, October 22, in a 13 to 7 thriller as the Bullpups scored twice in the second quarter period on passes.

Early in the second quarter the passing of John D. Moose and Lonnie Morton paid off for two scores, which Rockwell was never able to overcome.

AHS 32; Wadesboro 0

AHS Bullpups overcame a scrappy Wadesboro Jayvee eleven 32-0 as Larry Chance scored four touchdowns in Wadesboro on October 8.

John D. Moose took the opening kickoff and ran eighty yards before he was pushed out on the two-yard line. Also helping in the win were Otty Lynn, Lonnie Morton and Joe Whitley.

AHS 48; Wadesboro 0

AHS "B"-team completely overpowered Wadesboro 48-0 here on October 15 behind the brilliant running of Gantt, Smith, Moose, and Chance.

Lonnie Morton hit Joe Whitley with several touchdown passes and Donnie Smith converted from placement six out of seven extra points to make the game a real field day.

AHS 6; Rockingham 0

The AHS "B"-team socked Rockingham 6-0 here Monday night, October 29, as Morton, Gantt, and Chance teamed together to push over a late fourth period score to win.

Contributing to the win on defense were Otty Lynn and Charles James, who held back the ground attack, while John D. Moose, Ralph Setzler, and Lonnie Morton took care of the passes.
