

Queen, Parade, Dance Are Highlights Of Homecoming

The highlight of homecoming on Oct. 26 was when Paula Howard, elected homecoming queen by the football squad, was called forward at the half of the Statesville game, and Bruce Lowder, whom she sponsored, crowned her and presented her with a dozen red roses.

Homecoming got off to a big start Friday afternoon, when the usual homecoming parade was held. The Boosters club put on the parade, with Jimmy Skidmore in charge. The band, followed by the cheerleaders, led the parade. Following the cheerleaders was a long string of decorated cars driven by students. The parade halted at the square a few minutes and the cheerleaders led a couple of yells.

At the half of the Statesville game the sponsors were introduced as each walked through a big heart. The sponsors were: Ruth Ann Copley—Leslie Swanner; Paula Howard—Bruce Lowder; Jeanette Dennis—Johnny Youngblood; Margaret Brunson—Keith Byrd; Harvey Ann Smith—Bud Griffith; Jo Haynes—Hamilton Morton; Jeffie Lee—Kenneth Russell; Margie Stutts

Gene Snuggs; Martha Rae Harris—Claude Lawhon; Barbara Lowder—Sonny Bowers; Mary Louise Helms—Raygene Smith; Shirley Lisk—Jerry Traywick; Mona Rae Crofts—Bill Huckabee; Charlene Doby—Gene Honeycutt; Bobbie Eudy—Jimmy Skidmore; Betty Gantt—Charles McManus; Marilyn Green—T-Boe McLendon.

Ann Russell—Jimmy Page; Jo Ann Atkins—Claude Grigg; Marion Stiller—Ken Smith; Evelyn Kimrey—Ottie Lynn; Kathryn Groves—Lowell Hartsell; Carolyn Miller—Ralph Setzler; Emily Morton—Bobbie Brooks; Sylvia Rogers—Donnie Smith. Immediately after the game a big homecoming dance was held in the student lounge. The dance was free to everyone, and a large number of A. H. S. graduates were there.

The lounge was decorated in blue and white with different colored balloons.

A drive down center is a smart play on the gridiron, but on the highway you're liable to be thrown for a loss. On the road you'll score more on a safety than on a touchdown.

Football Player To Win Free Trip To UNC-N. Dame

The person selected as the most valuable player to the 1951 Albemarle Bulldogs football team will be given an expense free trip to the Carolina-Notre Dame game November 17, by Lowder Hardware co. in connection with Sylvania Television company which is sponsoring the contest.

The football fans of Albemarle and vicinity have until November 10 to vote at Lowder Hardware.

In addition to seeing the game, the player will get a chance to meet both teams and coaches. He and the students chosen from thirty other cities will be given a dinner by the Monogram club and will attend a dance that night given in their honor. The players will also be given a meal at the Sir Walter Hotel in Raleigh, where they will stay that night.

Executive Council Of FHA Installed

A meeting of the FHA was held last Thursday, October 13, for the purpose of installing the officers for the coming year.

This executive council of the FHA is composed of: president, Jo Ann Rummage; vice president, Ann Ivey; secretary, Betty Early; treasurer, Janice Parker; reporter, Betty Rummage; historian, Lydia Hall; parliamentarian, Carolyn Doby; and song leader, Helen Starr.

At this meeting reports were given from the county rally held on the preceding Saturday. Plans were also made for the State Rally to be held on November 3 at East Mecklenburg high school in Charlotte.

A fashion show was presented in which 21 AHS students participated and a movie was shown called "Last Date."
