

THE FULL MOON

Vol. 17, No. 7

Albemarle High School, Albemarle, N. C.

Friday, May 2, 1952

Here and There

MRS. MORRIS IS still having some trouble with cows. After remarking just recently that a cow would give milk and eggs, she made another little mistake about nature. One of the boys in a certain story had scared a cow. According to Mrs. Morris, "He ran away, and the boys ran after him."

BETTY GANTT'S TONGUE got twisted while she was reading a French sentence, and the sentence came out like this, "We returned with us."

Bill Huckabee expressed his amazement this way, "It's a good trick if you can do it."

KEITH BYRD WAS very happy because he thought they wouldn't take his blood, since he has asthma. So just before Keith was to go into the room where they were taking the blood, he was asked this by Emily Milton, "Keith, what happened to your asthma?" Keith replied, "I haven't seen it since I've been over here."

PATSY PETTIT STRETCHED in Economics class, and Mrs. Hayes said, "Patsy, you have a very intelligent stretch. You look as if you were going to say something."

WHEN TEST grades were being called out in French the other day, it was discovered that Joe Gaskin made ninety-nine. "You had better watch it, Joe," remarked Bruce Lowder. "You're cracking up."

WHILE LEAFING through a magazine one day in study hall, Doug Knotts remarked, "Look, Bruce, here's a picture of a salad master." Bruce Lowder, feeling a generous mood coming on, replied, "I'm going to donate one of those to the cafeteria. All they have now is one used lawnmower."

WHEN JUDY WHITLEY asked Mona Rae Crotts where she was going that night, Mona Rae replied, "To see a double feature—Full Moon and Empty Arms, playing at the airport."

DICKIE CASHWELL was sitting in the chemistry class the other day, supposedly taking a general science test, when Mr. Hatley asked him if he had finished the test.

Dickie, who had really been listening to the chemistry lesson, replied, "No. I can't do this work."

Mr. Hatley stated, "You're not taking chemistry; because if you were, you wouldn't be paying attention."

WHEN YOU enter into a conversation with Mr. Hatley, anything is likely to be told. This is evident by this conversation: "My physics class really likes to work!" exclaimed Mr. Hatley. One of his friends with whom he was talking, replied, "They do?"

Mr. Hatley explained his statement with this, "Yes, but I haven't found out what they like to work at, yet!"

WHEN MRS. FRY WAS HANDING out Full Moon assignments the other day, she said this to Doug Knotts, "Doug, go see Coach Webb and tell him to sit down and think up something for our sports page."

Doug replied with, "Have you ever asked Coach Webb to sit down and think?"

JEAN BARRINGER was talking in economics class when this great question burst forth, "Do salesmen have to have a driver's license?" (the meaning was a license over and above their regular license.)

Margaret Griffin gave her answer with complete assurance that it was right. She said, "Not if he walks."

CAST OF "MEN ARE LIKE STREETCARS"—Seated, left to right: Betty Brunson, Tommy Poplin, Sylvia Morrow, Lewis Klutz, Betty Crowell, Joe Gaskin, and Patsy Williford. Standing: Catherine Atkins, Henry Carpenter, stage manager; Joe Clayton, Ann Reader Daniel, Jean Barringer, Jimmie Brown, Kenneth Hall, Junior Josey, Emily Morton, Miss Bankett, David Morrow, and Virginia Helms, student director. Kathryn Kimrey, also in the cast, was not present for the picture.

Candidates For AHS Officers Chosen

Mr. Harris Gives Machine To AHS

Mr. A. P. Harris of the Home Builders Association recently gave the commercial department of AHS a bookkeeping machine. This machine deals mostly with dollars and cents, but can also type the month, the day, and the year. It will be used mainly for adding and subtracting. It can add figures totaling $999,000,000.

Although this bookkeeping machine isn't a new model, it is in very good condition, and will be a great help to the bookkeeping students in their work.

Another machine was also acquired by the school recently. It was bought from the government as a war surplus machine and will be used mainly for dealing with numbers.

Almond Elected As Chief Marshal

Marshals have recently been chosen for the commencement exercises on June 1 and 2. These students were selected from those who made honor roll for the first semester.

Glenn Almond, who received the highest number of votes in the Junior class, was made chief

Crowell, Griffin Are Valedictorian And Salutatorian

Barbara Crowell is valedictorian of the class of 1952 and Jo Anne Griffin salutatorian, according to an announcement from Mr. Cashwell.

Both girls have straight A records.

Barbara, who has taken five subjects each year, has made nine A pluses and 27 A's.

Jo Anne has taken five subjects every year but this one, when she is taking four. Her record shows one A plus, 26 A's, and 7 A minuses.

In addition to her school work Jo Anne has, for the past two years held a job at a local drug store, working every other day from 5 to 9:30 and full time every other Saturday and Sunday.

marshal.

The following students were selected: Eleventh grade: Glenn Almond, Bill Huckabee, Bernice Roscoe, Aveline Osborn, and Carolyn Williams.

Tenth grade: Lydia Hall, Larry Talbert, Lowell Hartsell, and Jo Ann Atkins.

Ninth grade: Lyndell Smith, Elizabeth Hunsucker, and Bobby Peck.

Eighth grade: Wade Smith and Zalotta Harris.

Huckabee, Almond Begin Campaigns For Presidency.

As a result of the two nominating conventions which were held at AHS and at Central Elementary school, April 23, Bill Huckabee and Glenn Almond are the two candidates competing for the presidency of the student body.

The nominees for vice-president are Ralph Setzler and Danny Vismor, while Lyndell Smith and Frances Litaker are competing for the office of secretary. Frank Burrell and Robert Shaver are the candidates for treasurer.

The campaign speeches for all of these candidates will be presented in the assembly program this morning, and elections will be held May 6.

The election committee consists of Roger Freeman, chairman, Jean Barringer, Arthur Lynn, and Wade Smith.

News Briets

The senior banquet is scheduled for May 16.

David Morrow and Joe Gaskin are the student Lion and student Rotarian respectively for this month.

Second semester exams will begin on May 28.

O'Lema Aldridge, Barbara Crowell, Nancy Austin, and Joe Clayton were the eighth grade representatives to the student council?

Ann Daniels and Junior Josey were the officers of the freshman dramatics club?

Nancy Morrow, Betty Lynn Crowell, and Paula Howard were homecoming sponsors in the ninth grade?

Mrs. Lynn's room gave the play, "In Dixon's Kitchen," starring Lewis Klutz, Nancy Morrow, Bill Lisk, Keith Byrd and Gene Huneycutt?

For an idea of the way the class of 1949 felt about the class of 1952, we are printing this poem which was written by Sally Beaver and was published by Sally Beaver and was published by Sally Beaver.

(Continued on Page Seven)

Annual Concert Given By Band, Choral Groups

The AHS band and choir presented the annual spring concert last night in the high school auditorium.

The program featured the light and colorful music of springtime. The AHS choir, under the direction of Paul B. Fry, presented the first part of the program, singing religious, spiritual, and popular selections.

After a short intermission the band, under the direction of Spencer Hatley, played marches, concert arrangements of light favorites, and popular numbers.

At the beginning of the program the choir sang several religious and spiritual songs. They were "Thanks Be To God" — Dickson, "Lamb of God" — arranged by Christiansen, "Lord, Thou Art Mighty" — Valinoff, "Climbin' Up the Mountain" — arranged by Krone, and "De Animals A-Comin'" — arranged by Krone.

Next were the light and popular songs: "Sleep, Baby Sleep" — arranged by Shaw, "The Blue Room" — Rodgers, "Syncopated Clock" — Anderson, "One Kiss", with Marilyn Greene singing the soprano solo, — Romberg, "Oklahoma" — Rodgers, and "One World" — arranged by Wilson.

Marilyn Greene and J. C. Boone sang "Indian Love Call" as a duet.

Members of the choir wore formal clothes. The girls wore pastel evening dresses and the boys were dressed in white dinner jackets with dark trousers and black bow ties.

Some of the numbers that the band played were "The Bells of St. Mary's" — "The Student Prince" — Overture — Romberg; "The Waltz You Saved For me," "River Jordan" — Fantasy on Negro Spirituals; and "Blue Tango" — Anderson.

A.H.S. Has Guests From Boyden High

Mr. J. N. Nettles, principal of Boyden high school in Salisbury, and Miss Lois Roberts, choral director of Boyden high, were visitors in AHS last Thursday.

They came especially to observe the work done in Mr. Fry's choral classes. Mr. Nettles also visited in the science department and observed the work done in the high school in general.

By Their Words

"We shall now sing 'Blue Room' by Roy Rodgers" (meaning Richard Rodgers). — Mr. Fry.

"Miss Roberts comes from Kentucky, where they raise beautiful horses." — Mr. Fry.

"Everyone please leave the school slowly. It's burning fast." — Bruce Lowder.

"Joe Clayton is a good singer in his place, but we ain't gotta place for him." — Junior Josey. "People shouldn't use their stomachs for garbage cans." — Mr. R. C. Hatley.

"Grades don't mean a thing to Miss Caughman, but we get them on our report cards anyway." — Bill Huckabee.

"All of that is right now, except the part that's wrong." — Mr. R. C. Hatley.

"Don't do today what you can put off until tomorrow." — Joe Clayton.

"I'm still dru—, — I mean sleepy." — Leslie Swanner.

"I've got a good class as a whole, but in spots it's got leprosy." — Mr. R. C. Hatley.

"We may get too much sunshine today; we washed the windows." — Mrs. Hayes.

"Sue, let's make you all the odd parts." — Mrs. Fry, assigning parts in Macbeth.

"It looked like a one-legged car coming down the road." — Ann Daniels talking about a car with one light.