

Bulldogs Suffer Loss To Comets

The Asheboro Comets beat the Bulldogs in the second game with them by a score of 10-9.

Traywick led the hitting for the Bulldogs by getting three hits for five times at bat. Ken Smith was close behind, getting two for four.

The winning pitcher for the Comets was Carmichael, and the losing pitcher for the Bulldogs was Lawhon.

This left a record of four wins and six losses.

Railroaders Beat Bulldogs, 9 to 7

When the Bulldogs played Spencer for the second time at Spencer, the Railroaders beat the Bulldogs 9-7.

Lawhon and Raygene Smith led the hitting for the Bulldogs. Raygene hit a home run in the fifth inning.

The winning pitcher for Spencer was Lanning, and the losing pitcher for Albemarle was Raygene Smith.

Tub Russell fractured his jaw and was put out for the remainder of the season.

Shaver New Head Of Honor Society

Robert Shaver was elected as president of the Honor Society for the coming year at a called meeting last week.

The other officers elected to assist Robert are as follows: Bill Huckabee, vice-president; Carolyn Williams, secretary; Bernice Roscoe, treasurer; Martha Rae Harris, scrapbook chairman; Frank Burrell, business manager.

Mrs. Nell Westerlund, the sponsor of the Honor Society, said that the officers will have a tough schedule next year, and she requested that the members choose capable people who don't already hold so many offices.

Albemarle Loses To Thomasville

The Bulldogs traveled to Thomasville, only to be beaten by a score of 11-3.

Larry Chance, who is catching in Tub Russell's place, led the hitting for the Bulldogs by getting two for four times at bat.

The winning pitcher for Thomasville was Ballard, and the losing pitcher was Lawhon.

This left the Bulldogs a record of four wins and four losses.
